TRUCE REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN GRANTED.

Federal Commander at Torreon Offers to Surrender.

Rival Leaders Said to be Arranging Terms of Capitulation.

EAGLE PASS, Texas, April 1.—Despatches from the American consul at Durango, forwarded to Washington via this city, are reported today to announce that the Federal commander at Torreon has offered to surrender to General Villa, that a truce has been granted, and that the Federal and rebel commanders have met and are today arranging terms of capitulation.

General Velasco, it is said, first called for a three-hour armistice and offered to surrender the town if the garrison could march out with honors of war and if Villa would parole the officers and guarantee not to kill the volunteers, as he has threatened. The despatch announcing the truce and offer of surrender has been forwarded to Washington.

William P. Blocker, American consul at Piedrad Negras, refused to reveal the contents of the despatch from Durango, but admitted that the message had been received and forwarded to Secretary Bryan.

According to information from authentic sources Villa had taken the railroad station in Torreon and for the past two days has been working his way from house to house toward the centre of the city. He is said to have taken nearly half the town, but the assaults resulted in an appalling loss of life on both sides.

Last night General Velasco hoisted a white flag, it is said, and asked for three hours' truce to present a proposition. It was granted, it is understood, and the federal commanders offered to turn over the city with all military stores if the lives of all officers and men were guaranteed.

It is also understood that Villa at first demurred, saying that many of the garrison, including General Orozco, who is said to be in Torreon, were traitors and must be executed. It is said another armistice was arranged for today, however, when Villa would probably accept the offer of the federals.

It is known that a federal column of re-inforcements left Saltillo for Torreon March 30, but as all railroads are cut it will require several days for the relieving force to arrive at Torreon.

REPORT OF FALL PREMATURE.

New Column Marching to Velasco's Relief Under Maas.

JUAREZ, April 1.—Juarez waited today for definite news of General Villa's position in his attack on Torreon. Reports received by General Carranza last night indicated that fighting was still in progress.

Carranza today seemed confident that his military chieftain would conquer the Federals under General Velasco. The report that heavy re-inforcements for the Federal leader were approaching Torreon did not shake his confidence. Both armies are said to be so worn and exhausted by continued fighting that the present action lacks the virility of the rebel conquest of Gomez Palacio.

The new column reported marching to the relief of Velasco was said to be under the command of General Joaquin Maas and to number 4,500 men. To meet him, it was reported, General Monclovio Herrera was detailed by Villa. An engagement between these forces was expected hourly.

Carranza today informed American, British and German consuls that reports of the fall of Torreon were premature.

OCCUPY OUTSKIRTS.

Federals Fortified in Some of Strongest Buildings in Torreon.

CHIHUAHUA, April 1.—An official statement given out at the military headquarters at 10 a. m. today said the rebels occupied Gomez Palacio, Lerdo and some of the outskirts of Torreon. The Federals have fortified themselves in some of the strongest buildings in the last named city, the report adds.

NO NEWS OF TORREON BATTLE.

Officials Doubt That Re-Inforcements Are Nearing the City.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—No official despatches reached here today in regard to the Torreon battle. Officials were inclined to doubt that large Federal re-inforcements were nearing the besieged city, as was reported. News of definite character was eagerly awaited.

LA FOLLETTE'S BILL.

Would Make Unlawful Attempts to Influence Commission's Cases.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Senator La Follette today introduced a bill to make unlawful any attempt to influence any proceeding before the Interstate Commerce Commission except in accordance with its regulations, and gave notice he would speak Thursday, presenting evidence of efforts to influence the commission in connection with eastern rate case now pending.

Senator La Follette would not discuss his bill or his intentions further than to say: "I desire to present some remarks upon the bill and some evidence of a proceeding that is under way in this country that I believe to be the most serious in its prejudicial effect upon the work of the Interstate Commerce Commission of any thing that ever has before been witnessed."

STEAMERS REPORTED.

SABLE ISLAND, Nova Scotia, April 1.—Main from Bremen for Philadelphia, 700 miles east of Philadelphia at 7 p. m. March 31.

SABLE ISLAND, Nova Scotia, April 1.—St. Louis, from Southampton for New York, signalled at 9:45 a. m.; distance not given.

SPECIAL ORDER FOR FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

House Fails to Reach the Property Qualification Bill.

Newport Bond Act and Regulation of Osteopathy Approved.

(Special despatch to the News.)

PROVIDENCE, April 1.—The house did not take up the property qualification argument today, for there was a long calendar and this bill came well down on the list. Mr. West secured the passage of a motion to make it a special order for Friday afternoon at 1:30. The Newport bond acts were passed, as was the act regulating osteopathy. The senate committee disapproved the act requiring lights on all vehicles on highways and the indications are that the senate will kill it again this year, as it did last. In the senate, too, it was proposed to treat automobile trucks the same as pleasure cars in the matter of licensing, which will make the fees for these big machines much greater, being based on their power. An act against "bob veal" was also introduced. This would make the penalty for selling calves under four weeks old to any person likely to apply them for food purposes $100 fine or 90 days in jail. The act would seem to go back to the producer, who sells to the slaughterer, and thus would make the law easier of enforcement than at present.

The legislature is still making progress, but slowly, as the committees retain important bills which it seems to be impossible to induce them to report thus early in the session.

In the senate the judiciary committee reported with recommendation the act providing for a North Tiverton fire district, bu the same committee reported without recommendation the house act calling for lights on all vehicles traveling the highways between sunset and daybreak Calendar.

Senator Smith introduced an amendment to the automobile law, calling for the same charge for licenses for automobile trucks as for pleasure machines, Judiciary committee.

Senator Head introduced an amendment to the laws relative to public health which would restrict the use of "bob veal." Committee on public health.

Senator Smith introduced an act to permit Warren to give its police officers one day off a month. Judiciary committee.

Senator Bennett presented an amendment relative to petitions in suits in equity. Judiciary committee.

Senator Pierce presented a resolution approving the policy of President Wilson in the Mexican matter and expressing sympathy with the Federals of that country. Judiciary committee.

From the calendar was taken and passed the joint resolution approving the creation of a coast guard by the combination of the revenue and life saving services; also, a resolution appropriating $10,000 for the suppression of the starfish on oyster grounds.

In the house the judiciary committee reported acts regulating bills of exchange, and amending the caucus acts of East Providence, North Smithfield, Tiverton and Warren as made necessary by the biennial election laws. Calendar.

Mr. Atwood (Progressive) forced three roll-calls. He moved that the judiciary committee be discharged from further consideration of the acts relative to the Providence city councilmen being able to elect themselves to salaried offices and the division of the state into senatorial districts, and also tried to have the committee on special legislation relieved of the resolution calling for the commission on constitutional revision to report at this session. In each case his motion was declared lost.

Mr. Bashaw introduced an act relative to the suppression of intemperance. Judiciary committee.

From the calendar were taken and passed two acts relative to Newport bonds, four election law amendments necessary for the working of the biennial election law and an act causing to be paid back $26,20 to the Saunderston Hotel Company, which had been wrongly assessed by the state.

Adoption of Appropriation for French Participation Favored.

PARIS, April 1.—The budget committee of the Chamber of Deputies today authorized the presentation of a report favoring the adoption of an appropriation for official French participation in the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

WEEKS'S RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

Daniels to be Seen in Regard to Transportation to South America.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Steps that may lead to establishing a line of swift naval vessels to carry passengers, mail and freight between the United States and South America were taken today when the Senate adopted Senator Weeks's resolution calling upon Secretary Daniels for information on the feasibility of the project.

TOLLS CONTROVERSY NOW BEFORE SENATE.

Opponents of Repeal Appear to Have Majority of One.

No Hope of Final Disposition Within Next Five or Six Weeks.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Panama tolls controversy was transferred today from the House, where last night the Sims bill repealing the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal act was passed by the vote of 247 to 161, to the Senate. The measure's appearance was accepted as the signal for the beginning of one of the most protracted and complicated contests that body ever has faced. Senators both for and against the repeal said they saw no hope of a final disposition of the issue within the next five or six weeks.

Senator O'Gorman, who will lead the fight against the bill, plans to have the inter-oceanic canals committee, of which he is chairman, begin consideration of the measure. The committee already has before it various other bills relating to the tolls exemption. It appeared today that the members are nearly evenly divided on the chief issue. How a vote will result is regarded as extremely uncertain at the present time, but unless there is a change in the line-up the opponents of the repeal appear to have a majority of one.

Senator Lewis of Illinois has a bill empowering the President to suspend tolls by proclamation. Senator Reed has introduced a measure which would repeal the toll exemption clause and grant to foreign vessels the right to compete with American ships now engaged in the coastwise trade. Senator Owens's bill, identical with that passed by the House yesterday, it is expected will be replaced by the administration's measure, its purpose to expedite consideration in the Senate having failed. There are other measures pending, including a bill of Senator Thomas of Colorado and Senator Gallinger's resolution expressing the sense of Congress that it has the right to do as it pleases with respect to regulating shipping in the Panama canal.

The latest poll brought to the White House by an administration Senator who canvassed his colleagues and excluded from his count those whom he considered doubtful, indicated that the President's contention for repeal of canal tolls exemption would have a majority in the Senate of at least 16 Republicans as well as Democrats.

Senator Owen, the administration leader in the canals committee, where the measure now is pending, was at the White House early conferring with Secretary Tumulty. Asked about the procedure in the Senate and length of time for discussion, the Senator said: "It is natural to assume that if the committee does not report promptly, a motion will be made to discharge the measure from consideration of the committee. There is to be no effort at forcing unnecessarily, but we want no dilatory tactics. The committee stands, I should say, against the President and I think when the committee was organized those in favor of the tolls exemption were in the majority. A week in the committee would be a reasonable time for discussion."

The President had no comment to make on the result in the House, but let it be known that he cherished no ill feeling against those who, expressing their convictions, opposed the repeal. There was no comment made on the speech of Speaker Clark.

Chairman O'Gorman said today that he would call the canals committee to meet Tuesday. It is apparent that an effort is to be made to amend the House bill with a clause asserting the sovereignty of the United States over the Canal Zone. Some Senators who favor the repeal believe such an amendment would not be considered in the light of a compromise. Democratic Senators most active for the repeal insist that the bill should prevail without amendment.

Estimates of the number of Democrats who will oppose the repeal vary from 8 to 14. "The repeal is not yet won by any means" said Senator Charmberlain, leading the opponents.

When the canals committee will complete its work cannot be forecasted now, but the general opinion is the issues will not come formally before the Senate for at least 10 days. Senator Norris, Republican, introduced an amendment to re-affirm the right of the United States to grant an exemption if it desired to do so and to direct the President to begin negotiations to arbitrate Great Britain's protest.

The corrected count of the vote in the House yesterday, repealing the exemption clause, as announced in the Congressional Record today, is 247 for the repeal and 162 against it, a majority of 85 for the administration. The count as announced last night was 161 votes against it. The names of Representative Dyer, Republican, of Missouri, who voted against the repeal, was omitted in the list.

The verdict of the House on the issue which has absorbed Congress for many weeks came at the close of a stirring day, made memorable by a party division which found Speaker Champ Clark, Majority Leader Underwood and other Democratic chieftains lined up in open opposition to the President on an issue which the latter had declared vital to his conduct of the nation's foreign policy.

On the final vote, 220 Democrats in the House stood by the President, giving him in "ungrudging measure" what he has asked for, "the honor of the nation," in its foreign relations. Twenty-five Republicans and two Progressives also voted to sustain the President. Fifty-two Democrats followed Speaker Clark and Leader Underwood to defeat in their steadfast determination that the President was wrong in his decision that toll exemption for American ships is a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote with Great Britain. The measure's appearance was accepted as the signal for the beginning of one of the most protracted and complicated contests that body ever has faced. Senators both for and against the repeal said they saw no hope of a final disposition of the issue within the next five or six weeks.

Senator O'Gorman, who will lead the fight against the bill, plans to have the inter-oceanic canals committee, of which he is chairman, begin consideration of the measure. The committee already has before it various other bills relating to the tolls exemption. It appeared today that the members are nearly evenly divided on the chief issue. How a vote will result is regarded as extremely uncertain at the present time, but unless there is a change in the line-up the opponents of the repeal appear to have a majority of one.

Senator Lewis of Illinois has a bill empowering the President to suspend tolls by proclamation. Senator Reed has introduced a measure which would repeal the toll exemption clause and grant to foreign vessels the right to compete with American ships now engaged in the coastwise trade. Senator Owens's bill, identical with that passed by the House yesterday, it is expected will be replaced by the administration's measure, its purpose to expedite consideration in the Senate having failed. There are other measures pending, including a bill of Senator Thomas of Colorado and Senator Gallinger's resolution expressing the sense of Congress that it has the right to do as it pleases with respect to regulating shipping in the Panama canal.

The latest bill brought to the White House by an administration Senator who canvassed his colleagues and excluded from his count those whom he considered doubtful, indicated that the President's contention for repeal of canal tolls exemption would have a majority in the Senate of at least 16 —Republicans as well as Democrats.

Senator Owen, the administration leader in the canals committee, where the measure now is pending, was at the White House early conferring with Secretary Tumulty. Asked about the procedure in the Senate and length of time for discussion, the Senator said: "It is natural to assume that if the committee does not report promptly, a motion will be made to discharge the measure from consideration of the committee. There is to be no effort at forcing unnecessarily, but we want no dilatory tactics. The committee stands, I should say, against the President and I think when the committee was organized those in favor of the tolls exemption were in the majority. A week in the committee would be a reasonable time for discussion."

The President had no comment to make on the result in the House, but let it be known that he cherished no ill feeling against those who, expressing their convictions, opposed the repeal. There was no comment made on the speech of Speaker Clark.

Chairman O'Gorman said today that he would call the canals committee to meet Tuesday. It is apparent that an effort is to be made to amend the House bill with a clause asserting the sovereignty of the United States over the Canal Zone. Some Senators who favor the repeal believe such an amendment would not be considered in the light of a compromise. Democratic Senators most active for the repeal insist that the bill should prevail without amendment.

Estimates of the number of Democrats who will oppose the repeal vary from 8 to 14. "The repeal s not yet won by any means" said Senator Charnberlain, leading the opponents.

When the canals committee will complete its work cannot be forecasted now, but the general opinion is the issues will not come formally before the Senate for at least 10 days. Senator Norris, Republican, introduced an amendment to re-affirm the right of the United States to grant an exemption if it desired to do so and to direct the President to begin negotiations to arbitrate Great Britain's protest.

The corrected count of the vote in the House yesterday, repealing the exemption clause, as announced in the Congressional Record today, is 247 for the repeal and 162 against it, a majority of 85 for the administration. The count as announced last night was 161 votes against it. The names of Representative Dyer, Republican, of Missouri, who voted against the repeal, was omitted in the list.

The verdict of the House on the issue which has absorbed Congress for many weeks came at the close of a stirring day, made memorable by a party division which found Speaker Champ Clark, Majority Leader Underwood and other Democratic chieftains lined up in open opposition to the President on an issue which the latter had declared vital to his conduct of the nation's foreign policy.

On the final vote, 220 Democrats in the House stood by the President, giving him in "ungrudging measure" what he has asked for, "the honor of the nation," in its foreign relations. Twenty-five Republicans and two Progressives also voted to sustain the President. Fifty-two Democrats followed Speaker Clark and Leader Underwood to defeat in their steadfast determination that the President was wrong in his decision that toll exemption for American ships is a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote with Great Britain. ### The Vanitie's Graceful Lines an Indication of Great Speed

At last the name of the third of the candidates for the defense of the America's cup has been announced She is to be christened the Vanitie and is now well under way at the yards of the George Lawley & Sons Corporation, Neponset Mass, from designs by William Gardner & Co

The Vanitie is for Mr Alexander Smith Cochran of the New York Yacht Club and is the only one of the trio owned by a single individual the Resolute and the Defiance being financed by syndicates Mr Cochran will manage his own yacht and will have Captain Bill Dennis and Captain Harry Haff associated in the handling

Mr Cochran has had plenty of experience as regards owning a prize winning yacht for he owned the Westward, that sterling schooner which the Herreshoffs built for him and which under the command of the late Captain Charles Barr vanquished everything she met both here and abroad

The Vanitie, though she has but seven letters instead of the supposedly desirous eight in her name is pretty sure to show such speed that it will take a fast craft to defeat her When she makes her initial plunge and the yachting skips have an opportunity to see her graceful lines they may comprehend be significance of her name

She will in all probability be longer over all than the Herreshoff and Owen yachts She has long line overhang, both fore and aft and the only paint on her highly burnished bronze hull will be a red stripe at the water line She will have a short bowsprit

GOETHALS BECOMES FIRST GOVERNOR.

Panama Canal Zone Now Under a Permanent Government.

Officers of Civil Administration, Semi-Military in Character.

PANAMA, April 1—The Panama Canal zone began business today under a permanent form of government The Isthmian Canal commission, which governed the zone during the construction of the waterway, was dissolved, and a civil administration, semi military in character, was established

Colonel George W Goethals, by appointment of the President of the United States, became its first governor His inauguration was remarkable There were no ceremonies no speeches, no display In his office on the top of Culebra Hill, overlooking the now famous cut of that name Colonel Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the Isthmian Canal commission, simply began his day's work under a new title, Governor and Chief of the Department of Operation and Maintenance

In the big cut below while the colonel figuratively transferred his power from one hand to another the steam dredges were tearing away the last of Gaillard slide and locomotives were busy hauling away more of the daily spoil Work progressed as usual along the whole route of the canal There were no extra flags flying no outward show of any kind that the government of the zone was undergoing any changes There were changes in name merely so far as most of the canal workers were concerned Ever since Colonel Goethals became the guiding spirit of the work he has been the benevolent despot of the isthmus, and there are few new faces in the group of men who have found a place in the permanent government The list has been announced as follows

Engineer of Maintenance—Colonel Harry F Hodges of the army engineers

Superintendent of Transportation—Captain Hugh Rodman, U S N

Electrical Engineer—Captain W H Rose of the army engineers

Captains for the terminal ports—Commander D E Dismukes and Lieutenant-Commander Henry V Butler, U S N

Superintendent of Shops and Drydocks—Naval Constructor D C Nutting

General Purchasing Officer—Major F C Boggs army engineers

Chief Quartermaster—Captain R E. Wood, United States Cavalry (temporarily, pending re-organization of the supply department)

Auditor—H A A Smith, assistant B F Harrah

Chief Health Officer—Lieutenant Colonel Charles F Mason, Medical Corps, U S A

Chief Officer of the Quarantine Division—Passed Assistant Surgeon Marshall C Guthrie, United States bureau of public health

Executive Secretary—C A. Meneaine

Only a small portion of the permanent organization became active today It probably will not be perfected until all of the construction work has been done which will require probably another year

That part of the old organization which will feel the new order of things first is the old department of civil administration over which Richard Metcalfe presided As fast as practicable Colonel Goethals said this will be re-organized and will be placed under the new executive secretary The courts, which formerly were considered a part of this department already have been separated and consolidated under the one federal judge and his two assistants at either end of the canal

The sanitary and health departments also will soon be on the permanent basis The work practically has been completed and the new department of health with Colonel Gorgas at its head will in future look after the sanitation of the zone and the isthmus of Panama generally

The departments of operation and maintenance will not be fully established until the canal has been fully completed

The accounting department of the permanent organization will succeed to the work formerly done by the division of disbursements and the examiner of accounts Nothing more than a consolidation and a slight contraction of working force will be needed to make them ready for their new work

All departments will be directly responsible to the governor of the Panama canal who in turn is responsible to the President of the United States through the War Department

When in operation it is estimated there will be about 000 American white employes on the canal and perhaps a few hundred negro laborers all residents of the Canal zone

BARN DANCE OF HEBREW ASSOCIATION.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association gave a novel barn dance in Fellows hall Tuesday evening for the benefit of the athletic fund for the coming season Parcels of straw hay together with farming implements were hung about the while many were in costume Louis Lippitt was floor director with the committee were Messrs Lippitt chairman Samuel K Philip Alberts Daniel Rosen Henry Poudrat Henry Poudrat and Joseph Josephson Hall's orchestra rendered popular music for a large number of dances

DEATH OF WILLIAM W. STUART.

News is received of the death in Barcelona Spain of William Wright Stuart, formerly of New York a brother of Mrs William B Leeds

Mr Stuart was born in New York in 1849 a son of the late James Stuart a banker He was graduated from Princeton in 1868 and later studied in Germany For many years he was engaged in the banking and stock brokerage business in New York and about 1890 went to Barcelona, where he became a member of the Stock Exchange Some time ago his health began to fail but this was not regarded as serious He is survived by a wife and two sons

DEAD.

(Life).

Consoler of our toils and strife,
Of weary feet and aching head,
We solve the problem of our life
In bed

Relief from trammeling attire,
Which like unrighteous rags we shed,
The simple life that we desire
Is bed

We leave the things that merely seem
The husks on which our souls are fed,
To taste the living food of dream
In bed.

From dismal bores and friendships vain,
Too little done and too much said—
From pain, we fly to counterpane,
In bed

FANCIES.

The man who thinks he can't be fooled
Is an unreasonable ass
Because by egotism ruled,
He starts right in and fools himself

There's something in the air of spring—
A stick, perhaps or bluebird's wing,
The spicy tang of spruce and pine
Affects the head and feet like wine
A fervor that no care can cool
Inspires the real April fool

No pleasures can at all compare
To his who may get drunk on air
For one thing its such sparkling stuff,
And then you can't but get enough—
Unless indeed with cap and stool
You stay indoors, an April fool

The sky's the cup of life turned down,
And we in wine are like to drown
In gold brown brooks it drains away
Oh come and drink it while you may!
Escape today from wisdom's rule
And be with me an April fool

COCHRAN BOAT NAMED.

The Vanitie's Graceful Lines an Indication of Great Speed.

At last the name of the third of the candidates for the defense of the America's cup has been announced. She is to be christened the Vanitie and is now well under way at the yards of the George Lawley & Sons' Corporation, Neponset, Mass., from designs by William Gardner & Co.

The Vanitie is for Mr. Alexander Smith Cochran of the New York Yacht Club, and is the only one of the trio owned by a single individual, the Resolute and the Defiance being financed by syndicates. Mr. Cochran will manage his own yacht and will have Captain "Bill" Dennis and Captain Harry Haff associated in her handling.

Mr. Cochran has had plenty of experience as regards owning a prize-winning yacht, for he owned the Westward, that sterling schooner which the Herreshoffs built for him and which, under the command of the late Captain Charles Barr, vanquished everything she met, both here and abroad.

The Vanitie, though she has but seven letters instead of the supposedly destrous eight in her name, is pretty sure to show such speed that it will take a fast craft to defeat her. When she makes her initial plunge and the yachting sharps have an opportunity to see her graceful lines they may comprehend the significance of her name.

She will in all probability be longer, over all, than the Herreshoff and Owen yachts. She has long, fine overhangs both fore and aft, and the only paint on her highly burnished bronze hull will be a red stripe at the water line. She will have a short bowsprit.

Rev. Mr. Wadsworth's Return to Methodist Episcopal Church Pleasing.

[Regular correspondence of the News]

General satisfaction is expressed at the return of Rev. John Wadsworth to the Methodist Episcopal Church here for another year. He has been an earnest worker for the church, both spiritually and financially, and active in every movement for the good of the community. Mrs. Wadsworth, who has been a great sufferer during the past year, is now able with assistance to go out some. The disease, if not cured, is held in abeyance.

Many in town are sick with heavy colds. In one locality, within a stone's throw, there are four sufferers—Mrs. L. A. Popple, Mrs. Wilbur C. Wheeler, Mrs. John McKie of Winthrop, Mass., and Mrs. Horace Gilmore of Boston, the two last named being guests of Mrs. Oliver G. Hicks of Bristol Ferry. Mrs. Elwyn Anthony of Quaker hill is also ill of the same cause.

The guild of St. Paul's Church met with Mrs. Berton W. Storrs Tuesday afternoon, with a good attendance.

Mrs. Mary Robinson and her daughter, Miss Hattie Robinson, have been guests of Mrs. Abner C. Tallman of Tiverton.

The public schools will close Friday, April 3, for a two weeks' vacation.

The Seaconnet River Oyster Company has lifted of Mr. W. D. Humphrey the building formerly used by the Decker Oyster Company, where the work of selecting oysters is now going on. Steamer Warwick having brought in a large quantity.

Miss Emma L. Brayton left Tuesday to visit her cousin Mrs. Herbert Chaffee, in Seekonk, Mass.

Mrs. Jane Edmonson of Brockton is spending a fortnight with her nephew, Mr. Philip Sullivan.

Miss Nellie O'Hara of Fall River is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Williams on Freeborn street.

Mrs. William B. Franklin is visiting relatives in Providence.

Mrs. David Hedly submitted to an operation Monday.

Mr. Frank C. Brazill is building a garage for Mr. A. Fremont Grinnell at his home on Freeborn street.

A heavy frost, looking like a fall of snow, covered the ground this morning.

"NON-COMS" WIN AT BOWLING.

Two teams, one composed of non-commissioned officers and the other of privates, rolled a bowling match on the Newport Artillery alleys Tuesday evening, the "non-coms" winning by a large margin. The teams were made up as follows:

Non-commissioned officers—Sergeant John H. Feltham, Jr., Sergeant John J. Dawley, Sergeant Marshall C. Rogers, Corporal William Thompson, Corporal Enos Titcomb.

Privates—William Thompson, Vincent M. P. Pinto, Gilbert Thompson, George R. Taylor, Ellsworth L. Holt.

NAVAL ORDERS AND MOVEMENTS.

The Navy Department announces the following orders to officers:

Ensign R. E. Sampson, detached from the Iowa and ordered to duty in connection with fitting out the Sacramento and to duty as engineer officer on board that vessel when commissioned.

Boatswain D. J. Sullivan, ordered to the St. Louis.

Machinist C. M. Baldwin, detached from the New Jersey and ordered to treatment at the naval hospital Boston.

Machinist F. R. King, ordered to the navy yard, Puget Sound, Wash.

Chief Carpenter T. E. Kiley, ordered to the receiving ship at Norfolk.

The following movements of vessels are reported:

Arrived—Dolphin at Tampico, Monaghan and Wilke at Dry Tortugas, Hector at Bahia, Petrel at Port-au-Prince, Paducah at survey grounds off Texas, Cubera, Eagle, Birmingham, Dixie, Beale, Ammen, Jouett and Osceola at Guantanamo.

Sailed—Pittsburg, from San Diego for San Francisco.

The Ohio has been ordered placed in ordinary at the navy yard, Philadelphia, April 6 or as soon thereafter as practicable.

The Manly has been ordered placed out of commission at Annapolis, Md., as soon as practicable.

The Jason will leave Hampton Roads for Vera Cruz about April 10.

The Saturn will leave Puget Sound for Mare Island early in April.

The itinerary of the Cubera as published February 25 is so far modified that upon leaving the east coast of Mexico, the vessel will proceed to New Orleans.

The Arkansas will soon leave the New York navy yard for service with the Atlantic fleet, and her place at the yard will be taken by the Wyoming, which goes there for overhauling. The New York will be commissioned April

CLARK AND WILSON

If Speaker Clark is trying to knife the President there is increasing probability that he will commit suicide Most men who have attacked the President of their own party have been retired from politics in consequence and Clark's flippant remarks about the Presidency in his address before the Brooklyn Young Men's Christian Association have little doubt that he is not only opposing the President's policy but is determined to wage war on the President personally despite his pleasant references in his speech in the House on the tolls question

Incidentally what is any Young Men's Christian Association doing with a political speech on Sunday afternoon? There is no particular use in church people trying to have the first day of the week for religious purposes if they are to invite Champ Clark to talk to them about anything which might happen to be uppermost in his mind

Speaker Clark may have bitter recollections of the way William Jennings Bryan prevented his nomination two years ago and made Woodrow Wilson President but he is not likely to promote his own nomination two years hence by making an enemy of the President and creating dissensions in his party Indeed he is inviting disasters rather than 1916 A House of Representatives will be chosen next fall and a division of the Democratic party between the friends and the enemies of the President is not calculated to promote Democratic success at the polls If the Republicans should elect the House it is quite certain that they would not choose the Missourian for Speaker Even if the Democrats retained control of the House the re election of the Speaker would not be assured because the friends of the President would be very likely to feel that they would better have some one else

In making war on the administration Clark is inviting trouble for his party and creating two contingencies in the way of his retention of the Speakership He says law is his business and politics his recreation and just at the moment he is acting as though he were tired of his recreation and wished to devote all his undivided attention to his profession

ADVERTISING ON A HIGH PLANE

One of the most remarkable developments of the present day in the business world is in the advertising field The writing and display of ads has become a profession Ther was a time not many years ago when it was thought anyone could write an advertisement and place it in a conspicuous part of a newspaper and almost do itself The attitude now of publishers for the most part and of newspaper readers as well is that no matter how well written an advertisement may be it must tell a story that is based on truth and honest value to the reader With this development in the profession must come a demand that advertisements be clean that they shall not be false but that they shall be exactly as represented A high standard of business ethics will also prevail in advertising and those who fail to meet it will be quickly distinguished in the profession and will not succeed long as it will be their obvious interest

A striking illustration of this is found in the fact that for several years now at the conventions of advertising clubs of the country the publicity men of the city where the meeting has been held have been opened on Sunday to those men and they have preached lay sermons That is in itself an evidence of confidence on the part of the ministers which is flattering but still more worthy of note is the fact that these men in their lay sermons have set forth the duties of life and the standards which ought to be set up in business so convincingly and on such a high plane of morality as to meet the entire approbation of the ministers and the congregations and make a strong impression upon people of all classes who heard them or read printed abstracts of their addresses The advertising men are making good in more ways than one and are coming to occupy a high place in the business life of the country

ACTUAL UNEMPLOYMENT

A few days ago the Pennsylvania railroad discontinued 62 trains and laid off 10,000 employes Still more recently the New York Central lines laid off 2,000 men The Baldwin Locomotive Works employ 10,000 fewer men than they did a few months ago The steel companies must have laid off a good many men though there has been slow improvement in this industry since the beginning of the year It is not likely that other railroad are keeping full forces when such great systems as the Pennsylvania and the New York Central have laid off 40,000 men

In the aggregate the amount of unemployed must be pretty large The cause is certainly not the tariff and it can hardly be called political though the refusal of the Interstate Commerce Commission to allow increased freight charges is political in the sense that it is a governmental interference with the course of business

The commission repeats what it recently said about the railroad losses in connection with what are known as tap lines and renewed its intimation that if the railroads did not make such liberal and improper allowances to their big customers they would not need the five per cent increase they are asking for Yet it is of doubtful wisdom to keep the railroads on starvation earnings in order to correct practices which will be changed on an order from the commission Of course the intimation is that the railroads will not need the increase if they make no tap line allowances but it will take time to obtain any relief in this way and in the meanwhile the business of the country is seriously curtailed

The political effect of this is likely to be marked The House of Representatives is to be elected this fall and the results will be influenced in considerable measure by the contentment of the country If the country is discontented it will not elect a Democratic House and if it keeps discontented it will not elect a Democratic President party has reason for wishing that the commission would allow the railroads to have the increase of rates they ask for

WHY PRICES ARE HIGH

Many explanations have been offered for the great increase in recent years in the cost of beef some of which have seemed reasonable There does not however appear to be much need of further investigation or any other reason being sought than that contained in the report based apparently upon reliable authority and figures that in 1900 there was one beef animal for every one and a half persons in this country while 10 years later there was one for every two and a half persons This tells the whole story It means that there are fewer steers and cows and as at the same time there are more persons to eat them naturally higher prices prevail to meet the conditions of reduced product and increased demand It is all very simple when viewed from that standpoint and it is also easy to understand in that light that the scarcity of beef leads to a greater demand for other kinds of meat and other foods and therefore an increase in prices and thus a rise all along the line

There seems to be but one solution of the situation and that is the raising of more beef animals and in increase of all kinds of food products It is evident that there will be no diminution in the number of people to be fed in this country but rather in increase It is plain therefore that to that must come from increased production of all kinds of food stuffs particularly those in most common demand How to create that increase not so easy a matter to determine but the Agricultural Department of the government is at work on the problem and does what it can to solve the difficulty and it is believed already making some headway in its undertaking That the prices of some and perhaps most common foods will ever be much if any lower than they are to day may be much to expect but some relief from the present pressing conditions may be found and will be very welcome

The New York New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company takes an important step in announcing that May 1 new tariff for grain and grain products will go into effect throughout New England The road heretofore insisted on billing corn through from New York on a local tariff and charging three cents additional for lighterage with the result that almost the whole New England territory was cut off from the benefits of the cheaper Argentine corn The new tariff has been in negotiation since Argentine corn became a factor in American markets and is of special benefit to shippers of this product and consumers as well

Orden Armour head of the packing interests of Chicago sees no reason for believing there will be a reduction in the price of meats this spring the coming summer or even next winter 'There will be no lower-ing of the prices of fresh meats,' he says 'until there are more cattle in this country' Tithe Mr Armour ignores the fact that Argentine and Australian meats are coming to the United States and ought to reduce the cost to the consumer or he knows that the imported meats will not for some reason affect the price

The Attorney General of Massachusetts has declared two labor bills recently before the legislature of that state unconstitutional On one of these, which proposes that employes of several classes should have one day's rest in seven without loss of pay, the attorney general rules that if it is intended to provide that the employe shall receive seven days pay for six days work this provision is a violation of the liberties and privileges of a citizen, as an interference with the right to make reasonable and proper contracts in conducting a legitimate business' The courts would undoubtedl, sustain the ruling

Now a federal system of government for the British Isles is proposed, as a solution of the difficulty into which the country has been brought by the Irish home rule bill and consequent developments It is said that the proposal which was made by Sir Edward Grey secretary of state for foreign affairs has been received by both sides in the House of Commons with great sympathy, and it is believed will lead to a renewal of the negotiations between the two front benches for the arrangement of an acceptable compromise

The New York board of aldermen has passed an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to publish false and misleading advertising in a newspaper, in circulars or on bill-boards with a penalty of a fine of from $25 to $50 or imprisonment of from five days to six months A similar bill has been before the Rhode Island legislature some time, but nobody knows when it will be passed if its consideration is ever reached

The New England members of the House were divided 18 against and 9 for the repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal act Seven Democrats and two Republicans voted for and seven Democrats and eleven Republicans against Of the Rhode Island representatives Messrs O Shaunessy and Kennedy were opposed and Mr Gerry favored the bill

Vanitie the name selected by Mr Alexander S Cochran for his yacht which will seek the honor of defending the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton unlike the other two would be defenders has but seven letters instead of the traditional eight However she follows the other boats in having one vowel twice an arrangement which seems to be almost a coincidence

April begins well

ELLIOTT'S TRIUMPH

[St Paul Pioneer Press]

It will gratify the many friends of Howard Elliott in this vicinity that he has been able to arrange a peaceful settlement of the government's quarrel with the New Haven Thus he may now work out his plans for the rejuvenation of the New England lines without the shadow of a federal suit hanging over him

The interest of St Paul people in the New Haven situation is mainly personal but it is not easy to be seen how anything could be gained either for the government or the people of New England by a long drawn out dissolution suit, whose outcome was uncertain and distant At the same time the friendly settlement is a triumph for Chairman Elliott whose tact and conciliatory attitude toward the government must have been a principal reason for the Attorney General's decision not to invoke the power of the courts

VOTING IN RHODE ISLAND.

The Outlook for a Change in Qualifications Not Very Promising.

[Fall River Herald]

The effect of the property qualification for voting in Rhode Island is a strong one, and an attempt to break it this year has failed The old Bourbon control of the state dies hard This year certain Republicans took up the cudgels in behalf of unrestricted voting, and it seemed likely that the measure would go through the legislature, on its way to the people, to be incorporated in an amendment to the constitution But the Republican leaders of the movement did not have the party behind them Whether they thought they had or whether they knew from the outset that they had not is a matter of conjecture, but it is clear from the result of the vote that the Republican machine senators were not lined up for the bill In other years the Republicans stole their thunder, and the men in charge of the measure declared their intention of carrying out the promise made in the Republican platform, which had pledged the party to this reform But they counted without the influence of the manipulators of the underground wires in Rhode Island politics, which has been able to perform wonders with Rhode Island constituents in the past So the vote for immediate consideration of the constitutional amendment lacked a majority, and the project goes over to another year

Rhode Island retains its distinction of being the only state in the Union which requires the ownership of a certain amount of property before a person can vote for civil officers and for the appropriation of money in town meeting How long the system will be able to survive in that state is a question Until the tight corporation which has long managed Rhode Island politics through a system that gives the smallest dish of the same vote in the senate that the city of Providence has is dissolved the outlook for a change in the qualifications required for voting is not very promising

GOETHALS BECOMES FIRST GOVERNOR.

Panama Canal Zone Now Under a Permanent Government.

Officers of Civil Administration Semi-Military in Character.

PANAMA, April 1.—The Panama Canal zone began business today under a permanent form of government. The Isthmian Canal commission, which governed the zone during the construction of the waterway, was dissolved, and a civil administration, semi-military in character, was established.

Colonel George W. Goethals, by appointment of the President of the United States, became its first governor. His inauguration was remarkable. There were no ceremonies, no speeches, no display. In his office on the top of Culebra Hill, overlooking the now famous cut of that name, Colonel Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the Isthmian Canal commission, simply began his day's work under a new title, "Governor and Chief of the Department of Operation and Maintenance."

In the big cut below, while the colonel, figuratively, transferred his power from one hand to another, the steam dredges were tearing away at the foot of Cucaracha slide, and locomotives were busy hauling away more of the daily spoil. Work progressed as usual along the whole route of the canal. There were no extra flags flying, no outward show of any kind that the government of the zone was undergoing any changes. There were changes in name merely, so far as most of the canal workers were concerned. Ever since Colonel Goethals became the guiding spirit of the work he has been the "benevolent despot" of the Isthmus, and there are few new faces in the group of men who have found a place in the permanent government. The list has been announced as follows:

Engineer of Maintenance—Colonel Harry F. Hodges, of the army engineers.

Superintendent of Transportation—Captain Hugh Rodman, U. S. N.

Electrical Engineer—Captain W. H. Rose, of the army engineers.

Captains for the terminal ports—Commander D. E. Dismukes and Lieutenant-Commander Henry Butler, U. S. N.

Superintendent of Shops and Drydocks—Naval Constructor D. C. Nutting.

General Purchasing Officer—Major F. C. Boggs, army engineers.

Chief Quartermaster—Captain R. E. Wood, United States Cavalry (temporarily, pending re-organization of the supply department).

Auditor—H. A. A. Smith; assistant, B. F. Harrah.

Chief Health Officer—Lieutenant-Colonel Charles F. Mason, Medical Corps, U. S. A.

Chief Officer of the Quarantine division—Passed Assistant Surgeon Marshall C. Guthrie, United States bureau of public health.

Executive Secretary—C. A. Mavaine.

Only a small portion of the permanent organization became active today. It probably will not be perfected until all of the construction work has been done, which will require probably another year.

That part of the old organization which will feel the new order of things first is the old department of administration over which Richard Metcalfe presided. As fast as practicable, Colonel Goethals said, this will be re-organized and will be placed under the new executive secretary. The courts, which formerly were considered a part of this department, already have been separated and consolidated under the one federal judge and his two assistants at either end of the canal.

The sanitary and health departments also will soon be on the permanent basis. The work practically has been completed and the new department of health, with Colonel Gorgas at its head, will in future look after the sanitation of the zone and the isthmus of Panama generally.

The departments of operation and maintenance will not be fully established until the canal has been fully completed.

The accounting department of the permanent organization will succeed to the work formerly done by the division of disbursements and the examiner of accounts. Nothing more than a consolidation and a slight contraction of working force will be needed to make them ready for their new work.

All departments will be directly responsible to the governor of the Panama canal who, in turn, is responsible to the President of the United States through the War Department.

When in operation it is estimated there will be about 5,000 American white employes on the canal, and perhaps a few hundred negro laborers, all residents of the Canal zone.

BED.

[Life.]

Consoler of our toils and strife,
Of weary feet and aching head,
We solve the problem of our life
In bed.

Relief from trammelling attire,
Which like unrighteous rags we shed,
The simple life that we desire
Is bed.

We leave the things that merely seem,
The husks on which our souls are fed,
To taste the living food of dream
In bed.

From dismal bores and friendships vain,
Too little done and too much said—
From pain, we fly to counterpane,
In bed.

FANCIES.

The man who thinks he can't be fooled
Is an unreasonable elf
Because, by egotism ruled,
He starts right in and fools himself.

There's something in the air of spring—
A suck, perhaps, or bluebird's wing,
The spicy tang of spruce and pine
Affects the head and feet like wine.
A fervor that no care can cool
Inspires the real April fool.

No pleasures can at all compare
To his who may get drunk on air.
For one thing, it's such sparkling stuff,
And then you can't but get enough—
Unless indeed with cap and stool
You stay indoors, an April fool.

The sky's the cup of life turned down,
And we in wine are like to drown.
In gold brown brooks it drains away.
Oh, come and drink it while you may!
Escape today from wisdom's rule
And be with me an April fool.
—[New York Tribune.

Father—I like to meet young men that do things.

Daughter—Then I know you'll like Ferdy, papa. He makes the most wonderful salad dressing you ever tasted. —[Puck.

"What do you mean by sending me on such a fool's errand?" asked the indignant youth.

"Whom would I have found better fitted for the mission?" asked the cynical maiden.—[Buffalo Express.

"I want to arrange to send out a lot of garden seeds April 1," said the member of Congress.

"Why that particular date?"

"Later on it will be easier to explain that they were all a joke."—[Washington Star.

"First Jew—Dwenty years ago Goldstein sold shoestrings on the corner und today he owns the corner on which he stood!

Second Jew (excitedly)—Und if he had valked up und down he might have owned the whole block.—[Life.

"Look here, Fred, I think I know you well enough to ask you how much I ought to tip that butler of yours!"

"Surely, old chap; he hasn't been very nice to you, has he?"

"Just barely noticed me."

"Then I should treat him accordingly. I wouldn't give him more than $50.—[Life.

"Who was that modest-looking young man, Cyrus?"

"Modest-looking? Say, what do you think he was?"

"I don't know."

"He was a moving-picture maker. All he wanted was to borrow our church for a mock marriage, and then have a bogus shooting affray on the front steps!"—[Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cut into thin slices sufficient cold cooked beef to serve six persons. Peel two large Spanish onions and cut in the thinnest of slices. In a heavy granite pan melt two tablespoonfuls of butter. Add the onions and cook over a slow fire, shaking gently from time to time, until golden brown. Sprinkle into the butter two teaspoonfuls of flour and cook until lightly colored, add gradually one pint of clear beef stock, stirring at first briskly that the flour may not lump. Add one tablespoonful tomato catsup and let all come to a gentle simmer. Have ready a deep baking dish which can be sent to the table. In it place alternate layers of the onions, sauce and beef. Cover with a half cupful of fine stale bread crumbs mixed with one tablespoonful of melted butter and brown in a quick oven. Serve at once.

Princess Soup.

Peel and slice one large Spanish onion or two small ones. Cook slowly in two tablespoonfuls of butter for 10 minutes; do not allow them to color. Add one quart of chicken stock and simmer for 15 minutes. Thicken with two tablespoonfuls of flour, blended with cold water, add seasoning to taste, simmer for five minutes longer, strain and return to the fire. Add two canned Spanish peppers cut in tiny diamonds, keep hot for five minutes, add one cupful of hot cream and serve.

... NOW BEFORE SENATE.

...med could stem the tide of administration success

Speaker Clark, for nearly 22 years a member of the House, made the speech of his life to forestall what he called 'unquestionable degradation of the nation' In this he failed, but he did smooth over the party breach with kindly words for his adversaries praise for President Wilson and an unqualified denial of any vaunting ambition on his own behalf When he had closed the debate for the opposition to the repeal with an impassioned argument, in which he often departed from his prepared speech, the Speaker was triumphant in defeat, for the entire legislative assemblage, in which were many Senators, rose en masse to cheer him

The scene in the House chamber when Speaker Clark yielded the gavel to Representative Underwood the majority leader and strode to the well before the dais to defend his course in the great controversy probably was unrivalled in the history of American legislation The galleries were packed with interested auditors Outside the galleries the corridors were jammed with disappointed hundreds On the floor nearly every member was in his seat Even the Senate had adjourned and scores of Senators occupied seats on the floor

It was a rare political stage setting that this throng witnessed Standing before them while Republican and Democratic members cheered him to the echo as the silver haired Speaker with resolution beaming on his countenance Behind him pounding for order was Mr Underwood

For a while Speaker Clark read his address but soon he got into his old time oratorical swing and was hammering home with sweeping gestures his deliberately delivered words When he paused the patriotic moves of President Wilson again he was interrupted by applause His emphatic declaration that with those who charged him with attempting to disrupt the party the wish was father to the thought not a member on the floor but applauded him

Does any man in this House believe that the Democratic leaders are working to split the Democracy? the Speaker fairly shouted as he looked into the faces of his colleagues

No no was the thunderous reply from every part of the chamber

When he declared that he was not a candidate for the Presidency and could be happy without it he interrupted himself with a chuckle that brought more applause.

When he had finished he before ended his position, praised the President whom he opposed expressed a admiration of his colleagues with whom he differed on this question chided those who had assailed him and sugar coated instead of tarring the situation As he walked from his place the House arose en masse Democrats Republicans Progressives alike, and cheered him

GENERAL PAGET'S ORDERS.

Told Officers Refusal to Do Their Duty Must Mean Dismissal

LONDON April 17—The first act of Premier Asquith in his new capacity as secretary of state for war was to clear up the mystery surrounding the instructions given by the war office to General Sir Arthur Paget was summoned to London to give his chief a personal account of the orders he had received and issued and as a result of the conference Reginald McKenna the home secretary who is acting leader of the House was able to inform the Commons today that the only question General Paget put or intended to be put to the commanding officers in Ireland was whether they were ready to put their duty before any other considerations It is not his intention that this or any such question should be put by the general officers to their subordinates General Paget informed the general officers of the promise given by the secretary of war to officers whose names were in Ulster, to permit them to withdraw temporarily from their commands in the event of operations becoming necessary in Ulster and requested the general officers to find out the number of officers who would withdraw on this account

The Irish commander in chief was asked if any officer who could not in this exemption would be allowed to resign and replied that the effect of any refusal to do their duty would only mean their dismissal from the army

EARLY DECISION EXPECTED.

Counsel for Roads May Waive Right to Argue Rate Case Orally.

WASHINGTON, April 1—A decision by the Interstate Commerce Commission on the rate increases asked by the Eastern railroads is expected much earlier than had been planned It may be handed down within a month

Recent developments have impelled the Commission to put aside collateral issues and extraneous questions and devote practically its entire time to the rate question Such matters as switching, car charges, free services of various kinds and similar propositions which have been considered with the application of the roads, it was understood today will not be permitted to interfere further with the fundamental proposition of a rate increase

It is expected that the case may be submitted either on briefs which now are practically prepared, and without oral argument or on briefs with only short arguments Counsel for the roads already have indicated that they may waive the right to argue the case orally and submit it on briefs They have in some instances expressed their willingness to stand on the evidence adduced It is believed to be not unlikely that the Commission may make an announcement of its purpose to facilitate the disposition of the cases

When the hearing was resumed today before Chairman Harlan and Commissioners Clements and McChord President Delano of the Monon explained in detail from charts which he had prepared the plight in which the roads of the Central Freight Association territory today find themselves

President Smith of the New York Central described the financial situation on that system dwelling at length on the necessity with which he said the system had been confronted of laying off long-time and experienced employees and of curtailing expenditures in improvements

Since September 1913 said Mr Smith we have been forced to reduce our operating force by 2? 000 men In February of this year as compared with February of last year we had 13 000 less men Our gross revenues in 1913 were $49 000 000 more than they were in 1910 yet our net income was $3 284 000 less than it was in 1910 before we had put the immense amount of new capital into the property

In response to an inquiry President Smith said that of the total of $1?9 000 000 new capital put into the system since 1910 only $16 000 000 has gone into the new terminal facilities and the Grand Central Station in New York city

WILSON FOR PROMPT ACTION

Both Parties Agreed on Fundamentals of Rural Credit Legislation.

WASHINGTON April 1—Senator Hollis of New Hampshire and Representative Bulkley of Ohio chairman of the two sub-committees in charge of rural credit legislation told President Wilson today that Republicans and Democrats alike of their committees were agreed on the fundamentals and that a bill embodying their views would be ready soon

The President impressed his callers with what seemed to him to be a necessity for prompt action and was told in detail of the program Mr Bulkley believed rural credits would follow the appropriations bills in the House In the Senate Mr Hollis said that the tolls controversy and appropriation bills would occupy many weeks but rural credits would be disposed of ahead of the trust question

POLO GROUNDS PROBABLE PLACE

Army and Navy Discuss Scene for Annual Football Game.

NEW YORK April 1—Peaceful adjustment is expected in the army navy discussion of a place for holding the next annual football game and the Polo Grounds is tentatively agreed upon as the scene Objections by the Annapolis men to the trip from Annapolis and the entraining for home without a chance for sight seeing were partially overcome by an announcement today that arrangements had been completed by which the entire student body at Annapolis and all midshipmen permitted to do so may be brought to this city and given permission to enjoy themselves until 12 o'clock on the night of the game Under this arrangement a special train with sleeping cars would convey the party to Annapolis

Lieutenants Matthews and Fairfield of the army and navy respectively with others in conference here returned yesterday to West Point and Annapolis After formal consideration of details by the heads of the academies an announcement may be made

NO WAGE ADVANCE GRANTED

Strike at Pacific Mills Print Works, Lawrence Ends.

LAWRENCE Mass April 1—The strike at the Pacific mills print works inaugurated March 17 by the color mixers who demanded an increase in wages practically ended today when all but a few of the strikers applied for their jobs again and were told to report for work Thursday morning It is understood that the strikers returned at the suggestion of Charles G Wood of the state board of conciliation pending an investigation by that body of the wage scale in plants similar to the Pacific mills

At one time there were 250 employes out on strike The plant was shut down owing to the strike for a week All but 34 had returned since the mill was re opened and most of these sought to return today No wage advance has been granted

LITTLE DAMAGE FROM ICE

Danger of Destructive Freshet of the Connecticut River Lessening

SPRINGFIELD Mass April 1—Danger of a destructive freshet of the Connecticut river is lessening daily according to the reports of snow and ice conditions up the valley Except for six or eight inches of snow over the extreme upper portions of the watershed the river valley is bare although some snow remains in the remote woods The Connecticut is open at many places as far north as Wells River Vt and what ice remains is badly rotted and is breaking off gradually without causing serious damage Unless heavy prolonged rains fall in the next two weeks it is believed that the spring will pass with only the usual damage

CLARK AND WILSON.

If Speaker Clark is trying to knife the President there is increasing probability that he will commit suicide. Most men who have attacked the President of their own party have been retired from politics in consequence, and Clark's flippant remarks about the Presidency in his address before the Brooklyn Young Men's Christian Association leave little doubt that he is not only opposing the President's policy but is determined to wage war on the President personally, despite his pleasant references in his speech in the House on the tolls question.

Incidentally, what is any Young Men's Christian Association doing with a political speech on Sunday afternoon? There is no particular use in church people trying to save the first day of the week for religious purposes if they are to invite Champ Clark to talk to them about anything which might happen to be uppermost in his mind.

Speaker Clark may have bitter recollections of the way William Jennings Bryan prevented his nomination two years ago and made Woodrow Wilson President, but he is not likely to promote his own nomination two years hence by making an enemy of the President and creating dissensions in his party. Indeed, he is inviting disasters earlier than 1916. A House of Representatives will be chosen next fall, and a division of the Democratic party between the friends and the enemies of the President is not calculated to promote Democratic success at the polls. If the Republicans should elect the House it is quite certain that they would not choose the Missourian for Speaker. Even if the Democrats retained control of the House, the re-election of the Speaker would not be assured, because the friends of the President would be very likely to feel that they would better have some one else.

In making war on the administration Clark is inviting trouble for his party and creating two contingencies in the way of his retention of the Speakership. He says law is his business and politics his recreation, and just at the moment he is acting as though he were tired of his recreation and wished to devote all his undivided attention to his profession.

ADVERTISING ON A HIGH PLANE.

One of the most remarkable developments of the present day in the business world is in the advertising field. The writing and display of "ads" has become a profession. There was a time not many years ago when it was thought any one could write an advertisement, and indeed to a considerable extent it was thought advertising could almost do itself. The attitude toward this matter is far different today, and some of the brightest minds in the country are devoted to this field of business. With this development into a profession instead of an occupation—and it was not even that a few years ago—there has come an elevating influence into the publicity phase of business life which demands that advertising shall be truthful; that it shall not simply not falsify, but that it shall not even exaggerate, but it is everything advertised shall be exactly as represented. That is a high standard to raise in this particular, but it is being realized to a large part of advertisers at the present time, and those who fail to measure up to it do not stand high in the profession and will not succeed long even all to their devious methods.

A striking illustration of this is found in the fact that for two years now, at the convention of advertising clubs of the country, the publicity of the city where the meeting is soon held have been opened on Sunday to these men, and they have preached lay sermons. That is in itself an evidence of confidence on the part of the ministers which is flattering, but still more worthy of note is the fact that these men in their lay sermons have set forth the duties of life and the standards which ought to be set up in business so convincingly and on such a high plane of morality as to meet the entire approbation of the ministers and the congregations and make a strong impression upon people of all classes who heard them or read printed abstracts of their addresses. The advertising men are making good in more ways than one and are coming to occupy a high place in the business life of the country.

ACTUAL UNEMPLOYMENT.

A few days ago the Pennsylvania railroad discontinued 62 trains and laid off 15,000 employes. Still more recently the New York Central lines laid off 25,000 men. The Baldwin Locomotive Works employ 10,000 fewer men than they did a few months ago. The steel companies must have laid off a good many men, though there has been slow improvement in this industry since the beginning of the year. It is not likely that other railroads are keeping full forces when such great systems as the Pennsylvania and the New York Central have laid off 40,000 men.

In the aggregate the amount of unemployed must be pretty large. The cause is certainly not the tariff, and it can hardly be called political, though the refusal of the Interstate Commerce Commission to allow increased freight charges is political in the sense that it is a governmental interference with the course of business.

The commission repeats what it recently said about the railroad losses in connection with what are known as tap-lines, and renewed its intimation that if the railroads did not make such liberal and improper allowances to their big customers they would not need the five per cent increase they are asking for. Yet it is of doubtful wisdom to keep the railroads on starvation earnings in order to correct practices which will be changed on an order from the commission. Of course, the intimation is that the railroads will not need the increase if they make no tap-line allowances, but it will take time to obtain any relief in this way, and in the meanwhile the business of the country is seriously curtailed.

The political effect of this is likely to be marked. The House of Representatives is to be elected this fall, and the results will be influenced in a considerable measure by the contentment of the country. If the country is discontented it will not elect a Democratic House, and if it keeps discontented it will not elect a Democratic President in 1916. The Democratic party has reason for wishing that the commission would allow the railroads to have the increase of rates they ask for.

WHY PRICES ARE HIGH.

Many explanations have been offered for the great increase in recent years in the cost of beef, some of which have seemed reasonable. There does not, however, appear to be much need of further investigation or any other reason being sought than that contained in the report, based apparently upon reliable authority and figures, that in 1900 there was one beef animal for every one and a half persons in this country, while 10 years later there was one for every two and a half persons. This tells the whole story. It means that there are fewer steaks and roasts, and as at the same time there are more persons to eat them naturally higher prices prevail to meet the conditions of reduced product and increased demand. It is all very simple when viewed from that standpoint, and it is also easy to understand in that light that the scarcity of beef leads to a greater demand for other kinds of meat and other foods, and therefore an increase in prices, and thus a rise all along the line.

There seems to be but one solution of the situation, and that is the raising of more beef animals and an increase of all kinds of food products. It is evident that there will be no diminution in the number of people to be fed in this country, but rather an increase. It is plain, therefore, that relief must come from increased production of all kinds of food stuffs, particularly those in most common demand. How to create that increase not so easy a matter to determine, but the Agricultural Department of the government is at work on the problem and doing what it can to solve the difficulty, and, it is believed, is already making some headway in its undertaking. That the prices of some, and perhaps most, commodities will ever be much, if any, lower than they are today it may be too much to expect, but some relief from the present pressing conditions may be found and will be very welcome.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company takes an important step in announcing that May 1 a new tariff for grain and grain products will go into effect throughout New England. The road has heretofore insisted on billing corn through from New York on a local tariff and charging three cents additional for lighterage, with the result that almost the whole New England territory was cut off from the benefits of the cheaper Argentine corn. The new tariff has been in negotiation since Argentine corn has become a factor in American markets, and is of special benefit to shippers of this product and consumers as well.

Ogden Armour, head of the packing interests of Chicago, sees no reason for believing there will be a reduction in the price of meats this spring, the coming summer or even next winter. There will be no lowering of the prices of fresh meats," he says, "until there are more cattle in this country." Either Mr. Armour ignores the fact that Argentine and Australian meats are coming to the United States and ought to reduce the cost to the consumer or he knows that the imported meats will not, for some reason, affect the price.

The Attorney General of Massachusetts has declared two labor bills recently before the legislature of that state unconstitutional. On one of these, which proposes that employes of several classes should have one day's rest in seven without loss of pay, the attorney general rules that, "if it is intended to provide that the employe shall receive seven days pay for six days work, this provision is a violation of the liberties and privileges of a citizen, as an interference with the right to make reasonable and proper contracts in conducting a legitimate business." The courts would undoubtedly sustain the ruling.

Now a federal system of government for the British isles is proposed, as a solution of the difficulty into which the country has been brought by the Irish home rule bill and consequent developments. It is said that the proposal, which was made by Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, has been received by both sides in the House of Commons with great sympathy, and it is believed will lead to a renewal of the negotiations between the two front benches for the arrangement of an acceptable compromise.

The New York board of aldermen has passed an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to publish false and misleading advertising in a newspaper, in circulars or on bill-boards with a penalty of a fine of from $25 to $50 or imprisonment of from five days to six months. A similar bill has been before the Rhode Island legislature some time, but nobody knows when it will be passed, if its consideration is ever reached.

The New England members of the House were divided, 18 against and 9 for the repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal act. Seven Democrats and two Republicans voted for and seven Democrats and eleven Republicans against. Of the Rhode Island representatives, Messrs. O'Shaunessy and Kennedy were opposed and Mr. Gerry favored the bill.

Vanitie, the name selected by Mr. Alexander S. Cochran for his yacht which will seek the honor of defending the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton, unlike the other two would-be defenders has but seven letters instead of the traditional eight. However, she follows the other boats in having one vowel twice, an arrangement which seems to be almost a coincidence.

April begins well.

ELLIOTT'S TRIUMPH.

[St. Paul Pioneer Press.]

It will gratify the many friends of Howard Elliott in this vicinity that he has been able to arrange a peaceful settlement of the government's quarrel with the New Haven. Thus he may now work out his plans for the rejuvenation of the New England lines without the shadow of a federal suit hanging over him.

The interest of St. Paul people in the New Haven situation is mainly personal, but it is not easy to be seen how anything could be gained either for the government or the people of New England by a long drawn-out dissolution suit, whose outcome was uncertain and distant. At the same time the friendly settlement is a triumph for Chairman Elliott, whose just and conciliatory attitude toward the government must have been a principal reason for the Attorney General's decision not to invoke the power of the courts.

VOTING IN RHODE ISLAND.

The Outlook for a Change in Qualifications Not Very Promising.

[Fall River Herald.]

The kind of the property qualification for voting in Rhode Island is a strong one, and an attempt to break it this year has failed. The old Bourbon control of the state dies hard. This year certain Republicans took up the cudgels in behalf of unrestricted voting, and it seemed likely that the measure would go through the legislature, on its way to the people, to be incorporated in an amendment to the constitution. But the Republican leaders of the movement did not have the party behind them. Whether they thought they had or whether they knew from the outset that they had not is a matter of conjecture, but it is clear from the result of the vote that the Republican machine senators were not lined up for the bill. In other years the Republicans stole their thunder, and the men in charge of the measure declared their intention of carrying out the promise made in the Republican platform, which had pledged the party to this reform. But they counted without the influence of the manipulators of the underground wires in Rhode Island politics, which has been able to perform wonders with Rhode Island constituents in the past. So the vote for immediate consideration of the constitutional amendment lacked a majority, and the project goes over to another year.

Rhode Island retains its distinction of being the only state in the Union which requires the ownership of a certain amount of property before a person can vote for civil officers and for the appropriation of money in town meeting. How long the system will be able to survive in that state is a question. Until the right corporation which has long managed Rhode Island politics through a system that gives the smallest district the same vote in the senate that the city of Providence has is dissolved, the outlook for a change in the qualifications required for voting is not very promising.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The weather was generally cloudy and unsettled this morning in all districts east of the Mississippi river except in New England, where fair weather still pervails. Rain is falling at many stations in the Lake region and thence southward to the Gulf of Mexico and eastward to the south and Middle Atlantic coast. Fair weather prevails in the Far West, with clear sky in Rocky Mountains. The barometer remains rather high over New England, the highest at Portland, Maine, 30.40 inches. A weak area of relatively low pressure lies off Hatteras, 30.16 inches, while the primary depression is central at Chicago, 29.88 inches.

The temperature is again above normal in the Ohio valley and thence southward to the middle Gulf coast and is generally near the seasonal average everywhere else. The only portions in the country where the minimum last night was more than two to four degrees below the freezing point were the interior parts of New England, where the lowest reported was 16 degrees at Northfield, Vt. In New York at 8 a. m. it was 42. Boston 43, Washington 42, Jacksonville 68, New Orleans 70, Kansas City 48, Denver 38, San Francisco 60 and Portland, Oregon, 42.

The Bonita Incident Not of International Significance.

WASHINGTON April 1—Delayed reports to the State Department concerning the reported capture of the rebels and the sinking of Spanish steamer Bonita make it appear that as reported a week ago from La Paz Lower California Federal governor Osuna revolted, seized the Bonita, and with a volunteer crew, including the prisoners in the local jail and $50,000 taken from business houses sailed for an unknown destination State Department advices make no mention of the reported sinking of the ship and they also indicate that it was a Mexican and not a Spanish vessel which deprives the incident of international significance

Words Characterize Defense of Militant Methods by Miss Pethick

NEW YORK April 1— All the women are willing to die We are fighting with our lives These statements characterized the defense of militant suffrage methods in England by Miss Dorothy Pethick sister of Mrs Pethick Lawrence and follower of Mrs Pimmeline Pankhurst at a meeting yesterday of the Equal Franchise Society In answer to a question as to what the British government could do to the women whom they imprisoned Miss Pethick replied Let them die Then she added that she was ready to [illegible] her life as when she thought she had been so reduced by forcible feeding, that the end appeared near

MANY BILLS BEFORE CONGRESS.

Speaker Clark Sees no Possibility of an Early Adjournment for Members.

Direct Primaries Expected to Make Changes—Seeds and Bulbs to be Sent by Parcel Post.

[Washington correspondence of the News]

WASHINGTON, March 31—Speaker Champ Clark does not take any stock in the talk of an early adjournment He has been too long in the House to be deceived by speculation about getting away by the last of May or even by the middle of June

If we had nothing but appropriation bills to dispose of we might have an early adjournment remarked the Speaker but there is a lot of legislation besides the appropriation bills.

There is another thing that has changed conditions and extended the sessions Before the appropriations committee made trips every fall to Panama to inspect the canal several members of the committee would meet and prepare appropriation bills and we would pass two or three before the holiday recess Now the committee does not get back and ready for work until Congress convenes and the appropriation bills are delayed At all events there is no possibility of an early adjournment

Talking about adjournment it is a fact that there is a deal of unrest in Congress and several men prominent on both sides of the political aisle are discussing the feasibility of postponing trust legislation in order to secure an early adjournment That unrest became pronounced when the warm weather struck the city but it is no more in evidence than it was last summer when the currency bill was up and President Wilson showed no inclination to have an adjournment He is not likely to cater to Congressional unrest by allowing Congress to adjourn while there is important legislation pending

Congressman Faison of North Carolina has introduced a measure which is almost a pork bill At all events it is a fish bill It provides for appropriations of $50 000 for fish hatching and fish cultural station in 15 different states If he had added about 15 more states he might have been able to get his bill through That is the way they manage rivers and harbor and public buildings bills

The defeat of Coe I Crawford of South Dakota by Congressman Burke was rather a surprise Burke has been less of a Progressive than Crawford though Crawford never left the Republican party The result in South Dakota is another evidence that direct primaries will make more changes in the Senate It is likely that the direct elections will also have the same effect

The galleries of the Senate were much interested the other day to see Senator Sheppard playing with a little child in the gallery It was entirely out of the ordinary especially as the child was climbing over the Senator and in a manner which betokened entire lack of appreciation of Senatorial dignity Children in the Senate galleries are supposed to be circumspect But in the House it is different We frequently see members playing with children on the floor of the House

Senator Bankhead of Oakland has secured the passage of a bill permitting seeds and bulbs to be sent by parcel post This was prevented under the parcel post law because certain interests feared they would be injured After a trial of the parcel post it was found that seeds and bulbs might just as well go by mail as other articles

Martin Dies of Texas was making his usual fight on pensions one day and insisted that Congress was going even further than the old soldiers desired And I can prove it by my friend from New York, Mr Payne said Dies waving his hand in the direction of the senior New York member At that particular moment however Mr Payne was fast asleep and Dies could not have proved anything by him

The number of bills introduced in Congress to prevent gambling of all kinds shows that the sentiment is growing Not only are these measures directed against dealing in futures and transactions of farm products on stock exchanges but some members would go further and prevent transmission of any information relating to gambling similar to the anti lottery laws As this sentiment grows we may have legislation

It is evident that the fight on the repeal of the Panama canal tolls is going to arouse a great deal of ill feeling in Congress mainly because party lines have been shattered As long as any measure can be kept within party lines there is not much bad blood engendered but it is when the parties get mixed up that irritation is shown

THE ROBINSON BILL.

Would Limit Senatorial Mail Franking Privilege to $60 a Year.

WASHINGTON April 1—As an outgrowth of the fight in the Senate yesterday to cut off the free telegraph privileges accorded Senators, which failed because of lack of a quorum, Senator Robinson of Arkansas today introduced a bill which would limit Senatorial mail franking privileges to $60 in any one year He sought to have an amendment to the same end adopted Tuesday in connection with the attempt to prohibit the free telegraph privileges for Senators, but was defeated and announced that he would introduce it as a bill today.

The battle in the Senate yesterday arose over the introduction by the committee on contingent expenses of a resolution limiting the annual telegraph expenses of any Senator to $60 for messages on official business Senator Robinson then sought to have his amendment adopted, but it was ruled out of order For the committee's resolution Senator Kenyon offered a substitute to provide that no Senator might send messages by wire even on official business, at the public expense The Kenyon substitute failed of passage only because of the lack of a quorum The vote on it was 35 to 6

Speed---Accuracy---Economy

These are the three big factors demanded in a typewriter, and all three of these essential factors are combined in a remarkable degree in the

Victor Typewriter

SPEED—Because of its delightful easy action, ball bearing carriage, and improved, no-spring escapement

ACCURACY—Because of its one-inch pivot-bearing typebar, which not only insures alignment, but has also solved the great problem of durability in a visible typewriter

ECONOMY—First, because of its ribbon movement, which saves from $4 50 to $6.75 on each machine per year Further, it costs less for up-keep than any typewriter ever produced.

BENNETT SAID TO BE [illegible]

Condition of Proprietor [illegible] York Herald Cause Much Anxiety.

A Cairo despatch to the Lo[illegible]ral News Tuesday said th[illegible] Gordon Bennett, proprietor o[illegible] York Herald, after showing [illegible]able improvement in his ph[illegible]dition, had become worse [illegible] that physicians were in attend[illegible] him throughout the night.

It was said at the office o[illegible] Herald in New York Tuesday night that friends of Mr. Bennett had received word Monday that he was convalescent. Rumors of a relapse were not regarded as serious.

Today's cablegram from Cairo says the doctors in attendance express hopes of his recovery from his illness.

A Central News despatch from Cairo received in London late today says the condition of Mr. Bennett causes much anxiety. Professor Albert Robin of Paris, a member of the Academy of Medicine, has been summoned to Cairo, where he is expected to arrive tomorrow. The despatch says the patient is unable to take nourishment.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GIBBS

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza [illegible] took place Tuesday afternoon from her residence on Lincoln street, where she lived with her nephew, Mr. George M. Gibbs. The service was conducted by Rev. William Safford Jones. Mrs. Gibbs having been a member of the Unitarian Church and attended the services at Channing when able. The body was taken today to Ashburnham, Mass., her former home, where her husband is buried. She was a woman of unusually brilliant mind and excellent in many ways, ever ready to help and cheer the despondent by her ready wit and warm, hearty assistance.

Easterbrooks today began preparing his trap gear at Price's Neck, but it will be two weeks before he sets.

—The weather man says rain and warmer tonight, but the local indications seem to say colder and no rain. It was warm enough this morning with the wind in the southwest, but about noon the wind shifted to southeast and the sun took a vacation, and it immediately began to grow colder and more March-like. Tuesday afternoon was a great one for baby carriages, but this afternoon is different.

—This morning James J. Dugan's men were seen covering Thames street with three big wagon loads of machinery. They had the right of way, and all of it, and there was no disputing the fact. The wagon loads were made up of a [illegible] crusher and screen, which has been in use in the making of state roads and was secured by Mr. Dugan for crushing stone for the highway department this year.

[illegible] CONTROVERSY NOW BEFORE SENATE.

[illegible]rmed, could stem the tide of administration success.

Speaker Clark, for nearly 22 years a member of the House, made the speech of his life to forestall what he called "unquestionable degradation of the nation." In this he failed, but he did smooth over the party breach with kindly words for his adversaries, cruise for President Wilson and an unqualified denial of any vaunting ambition on his own behalf. When he had closed the debate for the opposition to the repeal with an impassioned argument, in which he often departed from his prepared speech, the Speaker was triumphant in defeat, for the entire legislative assemblage, in which were many Senators, rose en masse to cheer him.

The scene in the House chamber when Speaker Clark yielded the gavel to Representative Underwood, the majority leader, and strode to the well before the dais to defend his course in the great controversy probably was unrivalled in the history of American legislation. The galleries were packed with interested auditors. Outside the galleries the corridors were jammed with disappointed hundreds. On the floor nearly every member was in his seat. Even the Senate had adjourned and scores of Senators occupied seats on the floor.

It was a rare political stage setting that this throng witnessed. Standing [illegible] then, while Republican and Democratic members cheered him to the echo, was the silver-haired Speaker with resolution beaming on his countenance. Behind him, pounding for order, was Mr. Underwood.

For a while Speaker Clark read his address, but soon he got into his old-time oratorical swing and was hammering home with sweeping gestures his deliberately delivered words. When he praised the patriotic moves of President Wilson again he was interrupted by applause. His emphatic declaration that with those who charged him with attempting to disrupt the party "the wish was father to the thought" not a member on the floor but applauded him.

"Does any man in this House believe that the Democratic leaders are working 'to split the Democracy'?" the Speaker fairly shouted, as he looked into the faces of his colleagues.

"No, no," was the thunderous reply from every part of the chamber.

When he declared that he was not a candidate for the Presidency and could be happy without it, he interrupted himself with a chuckle that brought more applause.

When he had finished he befriended his position, praised the President whom he opposed expressed admiration of his colleagues with whom he differed on this question, chided those who had assailed him and sugar-coated instead of tarring the situation. As he walked from his place the House arose en masse, Democrats, Republicans, Progressives alike, and cheered him.

GENERAL PAGET'S ORDERS.

Told Officers Refusal to Do Their Duty Must Mean Dismissal.

LONDON, April 17.—The first act of Premier Asquith in his new capacity as secretary of state for war was to clear up the mystery surrounding the instructions given by the war office to General Sir Arthur Paget. General Paget was summoned to London to give his chief a personal account of the orders he had received and issued, and as a result of the conference Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, who is acting as leader of the House, was able to inform the Commons today that "the only question General Paget put or intended to be put to the commanding officers in Ireland was whether they were ready to put their duty before any other considerations. It was not his intention that this or any such question should be put by the general officers to their subordinates. General Paget informed the general officers of the promise given by the secretary of war to officers whose names were in Ulster, to permit them to withdraw temporarily from their regiments in the event of operations becoming necessary in Ulster, and requested the general officers to find out the number of officers who would withdraw on this account.

The Irish commander-in-chief was asked if any officer who could not claim this exemption would be allowed to resign and replied that the result of any refusal to do their duty would only mean their dismissal from the army."

NO TROUBLE ANTICIPATED.

Tent Colony of Striking Miners Ordered Removed at Colliers, W. Va.

COLLIERS, W. Va., April 1.—Marshal Ned Smith came here today with an order from Judge A. G. Dayton to remove the tent colony of striking miners from the vicinity of the mines of the West Virginia & Pittsburgh Coal Co. Attorneys for the strikers said that this time there would be no trouble and the court order would be obeyed. Farmers in the vicinity of the mines refused to rent houses to the strikers, fearing that in so doing they would be in contempt, and the poor authorities of Brooke county prepared today, to take care of the strikers and their families if the plan to buy the ground on which the tents stand should fail.

He is 70 years old and has been nearly 51 years in the service.

A MODEL CIVIL SERVICE LAW.

Measure Must Embody Principles of Practical Merit System.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Preparation of a model civil service law will be undertaken at a meeting here tomorrow of the joint committees of the National Assembly of Civil Service Commissions and the National Civil Service Reform League, announcement of which was made today. A law embodying the essential principles of a practical merit civil service system, which might become applicable to any state and also to its counties and municipal governments, is the object of the meeting. It is also proposed to draft a form of constitutional amendment for the various states the people desire to submit the merit system with constitutional guarantees.

EARLY DECISION EXPECTED.

Counsel for Roads May Waive Right to Argue Rate Case Orally.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—A decision by the Interstate Commerce Commission on the rate increases asked by the Eastern railroads is expected much earlier than had been planned. It may be handed down within a month.

Recent developments have impelled the Commission to put aside collateral issues and extraneous questions and devote practically its entire time to the rate question. Such matters as spotting car charges, free services of various kinds, and similar propositions which have been considered with the application of the roads, it was understood today will not be permitted to interfere further with the fundamental proposition of a rate increase.

It is expected that the case may be submitted, either on briefs, which now are practically prepared, and without oral argument, or on briefs with only short arguments. Counsel for the roads already have indicated that they may waive the right to argue the case orally and submit it on briefs. They have in some instances expressed their willingness to stand on the evidence adduced.

It is believed to be not unlikely that the Commission may make an announcement of its purpose to facilitate the disposition of the cases.

When the hearing was resumed today before Chairman Harlan and Commissioners Clements and McChord, President Delano of the Mopan explained in detail from charts which he had prepared the "plight in which the roads of the Central Freight Association territory today find themselves."

President Smith of the New York Central described the financial situation on that system, dwelling at length on the necessity with which he said the system had been confronted of laying off long-time and experienced employes and of curtailing expenditures in improvements.

"Since September, 1913," said Mr. Smith, "we have been forced to reduce our operating force by 27,500 men. In February of this year as compared with February of last year, we had 13,000 less men. Our gross revenues in 1913 were $40,000,000 more than they were in 1910, yet our net income was $3,284,000 less than it was in 1910, before we had put the immense amount of new capital into the property."

In response to an inquiry President Smith said that, of the total of $150,000,000 new capital put into the system since 1910, only $16,000,000 has gone into the new terminal facilities and the Grand Central Station in New York city.

WILSON FOR PROMPT ACTION.

Both Parties Agreed on Fundamentals of Rural Credit Legislation.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Senator Hollis of New Hampshire and Representative Bulkley of Ohio, chairman of the two sub-committees in charge of rural credit legislation, told President Wilson today that Republicans and Democrats alike of their committees were agreed on the fundamentals, and that a bill embodying their views would be ready soon.

The President impressed his callers with what seemed to him to be a necessity for prompt action and was told in detail of the program. Mr. Bulkley believed rural credits would follow the appropriations bills in the House. In the Senate Mr. Hollis said that the tolls controversy and appropriation bills would occupy many weeks, but rural credits would be disposed of ahead of the trust question.

POLO GROUNDS PROBABLE PLACE

Army and Navy Discuss Scene for Annual Football Game.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Peaceful adjustment is expected in the army-navy discussion of a place for holding the next annual football game, and the Polo Grounds is tentatively agreed upon as the scene. Objections by the midshipmen to the trip from Annapolis and the entraining for home without a chance for sight-seeing were partially overcome by an announcement today that arrangements had been completed by which the entire student body at Annapolis, or all midshipmen permitted to do so, may be brought to this city and given permission to enjoy themselves until 12 o'clock on the night of the game. Under this arrangement a special train, with sleeping cars, would convey the party to Annapolis.

Lieutenants Matthews and Fairfield of the army and navy, respectively, with others in conference here, returned yesterday to West Point and Annapolis. After formal consideration of details by the heads of the academies an announcement may be made.

WILL LOOK AFTER WOMEN.

Four Female Police Appointed to Duty in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 1.—C. H. Hubbard, director of public safety, today announced the appointment of four policewomen, the first in Pittsburgh. They are attached to the secret service division and their names are known to none but the director and the officer to whom they will report. They will look after young girls coming to the city and investigate violation of the law in cafes where liquor is served to women, and in other ways look after women. It is not the intention of the department to have them have anything to do with law violation by men.

NO WAGE ADVANCE GRANTED.

Strike at Pacific Mills Print Works, Lawrence, Ends.

LAWRENCE, Mass, April 1.—The strike at the Pacific mills print works, inaugurated March 13 by the color mixers who demanded an increase in wages, practically ended today, when all but a few of the strikers applied for their jobs again and were told to report for work Thursday morning. It is understood that the strikers returned at the suggestion of Charles G. Wood, of the state board of conciliation, pending an investigation by that body of the wage scale in plants similar to the Pacific mills.

At one time there were 250 employes out on strike. The plant was shut down, owing to the strike, for a week. All but 24 had returned since the mill was re-opened and most of these sought to return today. No wage advance has been granted.

LITTLE DAMAGE FROM ICE.

Danger of Destructive Freshet of the Connecticut River Lessening.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 1.—Danger of a destructive freshet of the Connecticut river is lessening daily, according to the reports of snow and ice conditions up the valley. Except for six or eight inches of snow over the extreme upper portions of the watershed, the river valley is bare, although some snow remains in the remote woods. The Connecticut is open at many places as far north as Wells River, Vt., and what ice remains is badly rotted and is breaking off gradually without causing serious damage. Unless heavy, prolonged rains fall in the next two weeks, it is believed that the spring will pass without the usual damage.

Arraignment of Siegel and Vogel Again Postponed

NEW YORK, April 1—The arraignment of Henry Siegel and Frank E Vogel on charges of grand larceny and violations of the state banking laws, growing out of the failure of the Siegel enterprises was again postponed today, this time until Wednesday next.

Attorneys for Siegel and Vogel said it was commonly understood that new indictments had been found against their clients and they wished for time to prepare an answer

Vogel showing evidence of his serious illness and speaking a little above a whisper, took the stand today in the bankruptcy hearing before the United States commissioner He declared that outside of loans to Henry Siegel he now of no large personal loans made by Siegel and Co He said $50 000 which he had loaned to the Fourteenth Street store had never been repaid

When the banking house of Henry Siegel and Co was organized, Vogel said $5 000 000 was put into the concern These assets consisted of stock in the Simpson Crawford and Fourteenth Street stores in New York and of Siegel Cooper & Co in Chicago In 1910 this stock was exchanged for $5 000 000 of the Siegel Stores Corporation Vogel refused to tell where he kept his share of the stock on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him Vogel said his proportion of this stock was $700 000 and that Siegel drew from the bank sums aggregating $150 000 for his personal use depositing as security stock of the Siegel Stores Corporation

WAGE INCREASE REFUSED

Ohio Bituminous Coal Miners Out and Pennsylvania Men May Strike

CHICAGO April 1—Nearly 50 000 Ohio bituminous coal miners were forced into idleness today and 38 000 Pennsylvania miners may be thrown out of employment Friday because of the failure of Chicago conferences between the operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America to reach a new wage agreement to take the place of the one which expired last midnight

Pending negotiations for a new agreement between coal miners in Indiana Illinois and Iowa will continue at work

Most of the mines in the Ohio district suspended operations last midnight in accordance with orders issued Monday by the operators.

The operators in the central Pennsylvania district announced last night that unless the old agreement is renewed before Friday all the mines in that district will be closed and work suspended indefinitely The agreement of miners and operators was made at Cleveland in 1912 Several weeks ago a joint conference was held at Philadelphia to make a new agreement to take effect today The situation in Ohio is aggravated by a mine run law, passed by the Ohio legislature which went into effect March 31 Enactment of the law was strongly opposed by the operators

WHO WILL BE YOUR EXECUTOR?

ANSWER NO. 5.

With an individual administering an estate is of secondary importance, with a Trust Company it is a daily business, handled by business methods For example

PRACTICES OF ACCOUNTING.

Rarely does an individual make regular annual returns to the Court

Moreover, on account of pressure of private business, his duties as executor or trustee may be unintentionally neglected and you may have much difficulty in getting statements from him at reasonable intervals

An individual who is not busy probably has not had the experience which qualifies one for the highly responsible duties of an executor and trustee

A Trust Company is obliged by law to make regular annual returns to the Court

It makes annual and even semi-annual statements to the proper beneficiaries

It keeps all trust funds separate and distinct from its own resources and does not involve a trust in any way with its own transactions

A thorough system of accounting approved by the Commonwealth of Rhode Island makes it possible for a Trust Company to state exact conditions of an estate at any moment

NO WORD OF WRECK OF SHIP.

The Bonita Incident Not of International Significance.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Delayed reports to the State Department concerning the reported capture of the rebels and the sinking of Spanish steamer Bonita make it appear that, as reported a week ago from La Paz, Lower California, Federal governor Obsuna revolted, seized the Bonita, and with a volunteer crew, including the prisoners in the local jail and $50,000 taken from business houses, sailed for an unknown destination. State Department advices make no mention of the reported sinking of the ship and they also indicate that it was a Mexican and not a Spanish vessel, which deprives the incident of international significance.

HEART ON HIS RIGHT SIDE.

Malden Man's Appendix Also found in Middle of Abdomen.

MALDEN, Mass., April 1.—Physicians at the Malden hospital announced today that Charles A. Walker was, recovering from an operation for appendicitis, which disclosed that his heart was on the right side of his body. The appendix also was in an abnormal position and could not at first be located. It was found in the middle of the abdomen.

ALL WOMEN WILLING TO DIE.

Words Characterize Defense of Militant Methods by Miss Pethick.

NEW YORK, April 1.—"All the women are willing to die. We are fighting with our lives." These statements characterized the defense of militant suffrage methods in England by Miss Dorothy Pethick, sister of Mrs. Pethick Lawrence and follower of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst at a meeting yesterday of the Equal Franchise Society. In answer to a question as to what the British government could do to the women whom they imprisoned Miss Pethick replied: "Let them die." Then she added that she was never so happy in her life as when she thought she had been so reduced by forcible feeding that the end appeared near.

Miss Margaret Hodge, who is with Miss Pehick, also made an address. The women are going to oppose Mr. Asquith in his coming fight for election, she said.

SAVES CHILD'S LIFE.

Railroad Brakeman Receives Medal from Wilson.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—On recommendation of the Interstate Commerce Commission, President Wilson has awarded a medal of honor to A. C. Werner, a railroad brakeman of Smithville, Texas, who, at the peril of his life, saved a child who was standing on a railroad track in front of an approaching train. The President sent a personal letter of commendation to Werner. This was the fourteenth medal thus far awarded on recommendation of the commission.

THROUGH THE PARCEL POST.

Project for Bringing Producer and Consumer Closer to be Tried.

BOSTON, April 1.—Responses from about 100 persons, mostly farmers, have been received by Postmaster Mansfield to his notice recently sent throughout New England announcing that Boston had been selected as one of the cities for a trial of Postmaster General Burleson's project for bringing producer and consumer closer together through the parcel post. Mr. Mansfield said the letters showed that the farmers were interested in the plan and would be glad to ship produce direct to city consumers.

WILL TRAIN FOR A NURSE.

Miss Helen Cudahy Enters Massachusetts General Hospital.

BOSTON, April 1.—Miss Helen Cudahy, daughter of Patrick Cudahy, the wealthy Milwaukee packer, entered the training school for nurses at the Massachusetts General Hospital today. If the three months' work as a probationer does not alter Miss Cudahy's recently announced intention of becoming a trained nurse, she will then begin a three years' course. Between lectures and study hours she will join the other probationers in sweeping, cleaning and other similar duties.

MANY BILLS BEFORE CONGRESS.

Speaker Clark Sees no Possibility of an Early Adjournment for Members.

Direct Primaries Expected to Make Changes—Seeds and Bulbs to be Sent by Parcel Post.

[Washington correspondence of the News.]

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Speaker Champ Clark does not take any stock in the talk of an early adjournment. He has been too long in the House to be deceived by speculation about getting away by the last of May or even by the middle of June.

"If we had nothing but appropriation bills to dispose of we might have an early adjournment, remarked the Speaker, "but there is a lot of legislation besides the appropriation bills.

"There is another thing that has changed conditions and extended the sessions. Before the appropriations committee made trips every fall to Panama to inspect the canal, several members of the committee would meet and prepare appropriation bills and we would pass two or three before the holiday recess. Now the committee does not get back and ready for work until Congress convenes and the appropriation bills are delayed. At all events there is no possibility of an early adjournment."

Talking about adjournment, it is a fact that there is a deal of unrest in Congress, and several men prominent on both sides of the political aisle are discussing the feasibility of postponing trust legislation in order to secure an early adjournment. That unrest became pronounced when the warm weather struck the city, but it is no more in evidence than it was last summer when the currency bill was up and President Wilson showed no inclination to have an adjournment. He is not likely to cater to Congressional unrest by allowing Congress to adjourn while there is important legislation pending.

Congressman Faison of North Carolina has introduced a measure which is almost a "pork" bill. At all events, it is a "fish" bill. It provides for appropriations of $50,000 for fish hatching and fish cultural station in 15 different states. If he had added about 15 more states he might have been able to get his bill through. That is the way they manage river and harbor and public buildings bills.

The defeat of Coe I. Crawford of South Dakota by Congressman Burke was rather a surprise. Burke has been less of a Progressive than Crawford, though Crawford never left the Republican party. The result in South Dakota is another evidence that direct primaries will make more changes in the Senate. It is likely that the direct elections will also have the same effect.

The galleries of the Senate were much interested the other day to see Senator Sheppard playing with a little child in the gallery. It was entirely out of the ordinary, especially as the child was climbing over the Senator and in a manner which betokened entire lack of appreciation of Senatorial dignity. Children in the Senate galleries are supposed to be circumspect. But in the House it is different. We frequently see members playing with children on the floor of the House

[illegible] Senator Bankhead of Alabama has secured the passage of a bill permitting seeds and bulbs to be sent by parcel post. This was prevented under the parcel post law because certain interests feared they would be injured. After a trial of the parcel post it was found that seeds and bulbs might just as well go by mail as other articles.

Martin Dies of Texas was making his usual fight on pensions one day and insisted that Congress was going even further than the old soldiers desired. "And I can prove it by my friend from New York, Mr. Payne," said Dies, waving his hand in the direction of the senior New York member. At that particular moment, however, Mr. Payne was fast asleep, and Dies could not have proved anything by him.

The number of bills introduced in Congress to prevent gambling of all kinds shows that the sentiment is growing. Not only are these measures directed against dealing in futures and transactions of farm products on stock exchanges, but some members would go further and prevent transmission of any information relating to gambling, similar to the anti-lottery laws. As this sentiment grows we may have legislation.

It is evident that the division on the repeal of the Panama canal tolls is going to arouse a great deal of ill feeling in Congress, mainly because party lines have been shattered. As long as any measure can be kept within party lines there is not much bad blood engendered, but it is when the parties get mixed up that irritation is shown.

AMUNDSEN'S TRIP POSTPONED.

Expedition to the Arctic Delayed Until Summer of 1915.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Captain Raold Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, has postponed until 1915, the expedition to the Arctic regions he had planned to make this summer. His vessel the Fram, has been delayed on its journey from Colon and cannot reach San Francisco in time to be fitted out for the start that was to have been made in July. Henry Land, the Norwegian consul here, has received word from Captain Amundsen, who is in Europe that the expedition will not set out until next summer.

Bancroft, assistant director of physical training in New York schools, founded the league and is its president. The directors include Dr. Frederick R. ## THE ROBINSON BILL.

Would Limit Senatorial Mail Franking Privilege to $60 a Year.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—As an outgrowth of the fight in the Senate yesterday to cut off the free telegraph privileges accorded Senators, which failed because of lack of a quorum, Senator Robinson of Arkansas today introduced a bill which would limit Senatorial mail franking privileges to $60 in any one year. He sought to have an amendment to the same end adopted Tuesday in connection with the attempt to prohibit the free telegraph privileges for Senators, but was defeated and announced that he would introduce it as a bill today.

The battle in the Senate yesterday arose over the introduction by the committee on contingent expenses of a resolution limiting the annual telegraph expenses of any Senator to $60 for messages on official business. Senator Robinson then sought to have his amendment adopted, but it was ruled out of order. For the committee's resolution Senator Kenyon offered a substitute to provide that no Senator might send messages by wire, even on official business, at the public expense. The Kenyon substitute failed of passage only because of the lack of a quorum. The vote on it was 35 to 6.

Speed---Accuracy---Economy
These are the three big factors demanded in a typewriter, and all three of these essential factors are combined in a remarkable degree in the
Victor Typewriter
SPEED—Because of its delightful easy action, ball-bearing carriage, and improved, no-spring escapement.
ACCURACY—Because of its one-inch pivot-bearing typebar, which not only insures alignment, but has also solved the great problem of durability in a visible typewriter.
ECONOMY—First, because of its ribbon movement, which saves from $4.50 to $6.75 on each machine per year. Further, it costs less for up-keep than any typewriter ever produced.
H. R. Howard, wholesale leather dealer, Rochester, N. Y. writes:
"It may be of interest to you to know that in the six years we have had a No. 1 Victor typewriter in constant use, we have never called a repairman, or put a screwdriver in it. The factory serial number is 322.
SIX YEARS WITHOUT REPAIR IS AN UNPARALLELED PROOF OF THE VICTOR'S WONDERFUL ECONOMY.

Entertaining in every respect, and with an unusual collection of equipment, his act is said to be a wonder. Mascagne, the second act on the bill, will render music of the latest, both vocal and instrumental. Niblo and Spencer, a dancing duo, are said to be remarkable, their clog dancing particulary being of a high order. Collins and Manning, with a singing and talking act, complete the bill of vaudeville.

In addition many pictures will be shown, most prominent of which is one of the greatest successes of the American stage, "The Pride of Jennico," presented by Daniel Frohman in four parts. It is a stirring tale of the gallant days of old, of romance and roses and cold steel, when fortune and glory were carved by the sword. With several other pictures the performance will run three full hours.

MR. SCHULTZ IN CHARGE.

Takes up the Contract Work for the Care of the Public Parks.

The Park Commission held its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, all the members being present. Contractor Schultz was on hand and the Commission went over with him the work to be done on the several parks. A general understanding was had of what is to be done and Mr. Schultz took up his contract work this noon, which means that he at once assumed the charge of a caretaker for Aquidneck Park. This has already cost the city $150 this year, three months' pay. Hereafter there will be no charge to the city for this, as the contractor assumes the matter.

Colonel Willard was appointed a committee on the curb or coping at Aquidneck park.

The resolution of the Council on the matter of hiring bands was received, but no action was taken, as it is a trifle early for band music.

JAMESTOWN.

Progressives Active at the Polls for Election of Town Officers.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]

There was a considerable gathering at the town hall this morning when the polls were opened for the election of town officers. Workers were not very evident during the early hours, the Progressives being more active, however, than the Republicans. During the first hour only about 30 had voted, and although there are 296 on the lists the general opinion seemed to be that the vote would be light.

The King's Daughters gave another whist and social Tuesday evening at the Gardner House hall. After an hour of progressive whist the hall was cleared for dancing until 11 o'clock. Refreshments were served.

Miss M. M. Hopkins of Providence is visiting on the island.

Miss Hazel Greene of Saunderstown, who has recently returned from Florida, was guest of Captain and Mrs. S. Rousseau Tuesday.

C. E. Weeden has rented for the estate of T. C. Potter the furnished house known as the "Road Cottage," on the Dumplings, to Mrs. W. G. Hawkins of Pittsburgh, for the season of 1914.

Mrs. John Price Wetherill has deeded her property with cottage thereon, known as the McClellan place, to her daughter, Mrs. Anna W. Stout. She has also deeded the property with cottage on Walcott avenue to her daughter, Mrs. C. Wood.

MOOSE TEAM WINS POOL CHALLENGE MATCH.

At the Moose Club Tuesday evening the Moose team, O'Connell and Fitzgerald, defeated Wise and Germain, in a challenge match at pool, the score being 100 to 93. The contest was close throughout, the Moose players winning after a steady up-hill game, in which all the participants put up good pool. O'Connell and Wise each made a run of 14, and Fitzgerald one of 13. The play was witnessed by a large number of enthusiasts, who frequently applauded the good work. The Moose orchestra played during the evening.

After the pool match Steward Jack O'Neil served one of his favorite chowders, to the delight of the members.

FIGURES 70 PER CENT HIGHER.

Holders of Mary Street Property Think It is Cheap at That.

Conference With Committee Regarding Prices for New Schoolhouse Site.

The joint committee, on the proposed new schoolhouse on Mary street held a meeting Tuesday evening with representatives of the land, which is proposed to buy. Alderman Hughes, chairman of the aldermanic committee, explained that the price had advanced to $25,500, against $15,000 given when this project was first taken up in 1911 and on which the estimates were made. As $90,000 was appropriated for the entire work this would leave but $64,500 for the construction and it was a question of this was sufficient. The committee had therefore called the owners together to talk over the price of the land, to see if the figures given three years ago and those now asked could not be brought closer together. He did not say that if the committee failed in this the School Committee might condemn the land or might take another site.

There seemed to be no noticeable disposition to reduce; in fact, the talk was that the city was obtaining land very cheap. Still, the committee by looking at the figures could readily see that the price had advanced 70 per cent between the times when figures were given, when the school problem was first broached, and now, when the taxpayers have voted to have a schoolhouse built on this land.

Alderman Hughes presided and there were present, of the joint committee, Aldermen Leddy and Hanley, Superintendent Lull and W. J. Cozzens, R. C. Bachelier and W. W. Covell, besides representatives of the owners. Mr. Hughes explained the situation as the committee saw it and said the committee was unanimous in feeling that the differences between the cost of the land in 1911 and in 1914 were too great and that the price ought to be reduced.

Mr. F. H. Paine, who represented Miss Birckhead, was the first to speak. He told the committee that, while he did not know how much Miss Birckhead had asked for the land, he knew that she had told him in her opinion the price was low, less than the land was actually worth. She paid $5,500 for the property 22 years ago, and had torn down the house and divided the land into five lots. These are conveniently and centrally located, close to the car line and to Thames street. There are no other lots in this section so convenient and in her opinion the value of the land is much greater than is generally estimated.

In reply to a query from Mr. Hughes, Mr. Paine said that he could communicate with her, and tell her how the committee felt and obtain an expression of opinion from her on the matter of price. Mr. Hughes showed him two offers of the land made by Miss Birckhead—in October, 1911, for $7,000 and in February, 1914, for $10,000. Mr. Paine said he would communicate with Miss Birckhead at once and let the committee know as soon as possible what she says.

Mr. F. M. Hammett, representing the James H. Hammett heirs, was next to speak. He said he was not prepared to offer any reduction in the price asked without consultation with the other heirs, by whom the price had been made. In fixing the price, the fact that his brother has his business now established on the land to be taken and would be obliged to move, and would probably suffer some loss in the change besides the cost of moving, had been considered. The loss on income to the estate was also considered in making up the price of the land. He would take up the matter of a reduction in price with the other heirs and report to the committee.

Mr. George W. Ritchie, representing the Weenat Shassitt Association, said the price asked by the Association was the actual cost of the land plus about $300 profit. The land had been bought in 1906 for $4,500, improvements had cost about $400, interest about $2,160 and taxes about $200, making a total of $7,225. The Association asked $7,500, or less than $300 profit on what it had spent.

Mr. Bachelier asked about the 10-foot strip which the owners asked to have left open as a right of way, on the west of the land. Mr. Ritchie said that was to give the owners the same right of way in the rear they now enjoy. It seemed to him to be for the benefit of the city for these estates to have a rear entrance, as it would avoid the blocking of Thames street in delivering goods. This means a great relief to that part of Thames street, to have the crossing of the sidewalk by teams obviated. The properties now enjoy this rear right of way and are asking nothing new, but simply the retaining of that right.

Mr. Hughes said the committee had done some figuring and found that the prices per foot asked by the various owners were as follows: Red Men $1.40, Miss Birckhead $1.42, Hammett heirs $2.22.

Mr. Ritchie said he had not figured the price per foot but the Red Men's lot was worth the most of any per foot, and according to the figures the least was asked for it. The tax assessors had reckoned it as part of the Thames Street estate and assessed it at $1.25 per foot as Thames street property, since it adjoins and can be made part of the latter. On account of the objections of the Association this valuation had been reduced to $1 per foot. Mr. Paine suggested that the tax valuation is often of little use in fixing values. Mr. Ritchie said the Association had in mind the using of this land in connection with its present building, but though plans had been made nothing had been done. He also agreed to take up the matter with the Association and report to the committee what action is taken.

There was some talk about the deeds of Birckhead court and the copy of the deed was brought out. It showed that when the deed was given Miss Birckhead claimed all the land, though the Hammett heirs had signed also. Mr. Ritchie said that, as he understood it, the Red Men bought the lot bounded on Birckhead court.

The taxed values of the several pieces of property were reported to be: Weenat Shassitt Association $5,670, Hammett heirs $3,900, Birckhead $3,700. The amounts now asked are: Weenat Shassitt Association $7,500 Hammett heirs $8,000, Birckhead $10,000. The prices asked in 1911 were $5,000, $2,000 and $7,000. This is by recollection only, as the committee of the School Committee made a verbal report. Mr. Bachelier secured the price from the Hammett estate, Mr. Covell from the Red Men and Mr. Cozzens from Miss Birckhead. The last was the only one in writing and the other two do not remember just what prices they secured. It is remembered that the total price was approximately $15,000.

There seemed nothing else to do and the meeting adjourned.

A ONE-NIGHT EVENT.

Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. Circus to Have Professional Talent.

The professional talent at the Army and Navy Young Men's Christian Association circus will aid largely in making this affair another success, while the music to be rendered by the Fort Adams orchestra ought to be a big attraction. Instead of the usual custom of holding the circus on two successive nights, it has been decided to stage the event but one evening, Tuesday, April 7. Rehearsals are being held almost daily in the gymnasium, where the circus will take place, so that the performers will be in the best of condition.

Mr. R. D Flannery will do a comic tumbling stunt, an act which he gave four years with the Ringling Brothers circus The second of the professional men is Mr. H. R. Truelson, who was long in the employ of the 101 Ranch Wild West show, his specialty being a comic police stunt. Mr. E. C. Cope, who has been with several circuses, will take the place of head clown. H. S. Carley will do a clever stunt on a slack wire, and there will also be a clowns' band of 10 pieces.

In all there are 20 numbers on the program, including tumbling, and work on the high bar, parallels, rings, and Indian club exercises

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY.

Members of the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church Baptized by Rev. Mr. Reed.

The Emergency Club of the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, composed of members who have been baptized by Rev. William B. Reed, the pastor, in the past four years, will have its fourth anniversary this evening, with appropriate exercises. In all 127 persons have been received, of whom 70 are now connected with the church. The men will be presented by Mr. Perry Clark, president of the club, and the women by Miss Elizabeth Jackson, its secretary, the deacons leading the two groups as they enter the room. Miss Ethel Bonner will read a history of the club and Rev. H. W. Colston of Pawtucket will preach the sermon.

Announcement is made that the Mt. Olivet Church has nothing to do with any hospital entertainment, directly or indirectly, and that no one has been authorized to connect this church with any such movement. When the Newport Hospital makes its appeal to the churches the Mt. Olivet sends its donation in an official way. In 1912 the church sent $50. Last year when the appeal came the church was in the throes of a mortgage-burning rally and postponed its donation. Next August when the appeal goes to the churches Mt. Olivet will send its $50.

HOW STYLES CAN CHANGE.

Newest and Latest in Fashiondom Seen at the Bee Hive Opening.

The weather today was such as to call out large numbers to attend the spring opening at the Bee Hive. Many women availed themselves of the opportunity to see the newest and latest in Fashiondom, as illustrated in the different coats, suits and waists in the store's complement.

The windows show a remarkable display, not only of these articles of wearing apparel, but also of the manifold accessories—belts, neckpieces, gloves, etc. In the large collections in the various departments, the woman who wears the new styles can be assured of plenty of youthfulness and a vivid dash, while for older women the styles, although possibly not so picturesque, include garments which will give a younger appearance —what every woman wants.

An interesting part of the display is the collection of "Printzess" suits and coats. These garments are made in Cleveland, Ohio, and so great is the demand for them that the factory has become one of the largest of its kind.

The opening is for today, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and the Bee Hive is a place worth visiting, just to see how styles can change and have changed from the former efforts of Paris designers.

O'CONNELL'S GREAT PLAY.

Newporter Makes Two Hits in Game With the Savannah Team.

The Providence International League base ball team played the Savannahs of the Southern League at Savannah, Ga., Tuesday, the Savannahs winning, 1 to 0. The Providence players did little batting, Ralph O'Connell of this city being the only man to make two hits, the entire team having but six. The Providence Journal correspondent says:

"O'Connell was the only Providence hitter who walloped the ball with any degree of skill, the Newporter going the nine innings and coming Wolfe's stuff for a fine single and a corking double, 'Oke' was there strong also in the fielding line, a brilliant one-handed scoop on a ball driven with terrific speed by Van Landingham being his banner offering. On a perfect peg to Shean he forced Crowell, who was on first when the ball caromed off the stick. The youngster also made a great play on a hot grounder from Crowell's war club in the fourth."

O'Connell's record in the game was: 4 times at bat, 2 hits, 1 putout, 2 assists, no errors.

OCEAN HOUSE IMPROVEMENTS.

An extension is being built to the dining room at the Ocean House, across the beach; the rooms on the second and third floors are being improved, a garage is being built and the lawn in front is being graded and laid out to set off the place to better advantage. The new bridge over the creek and the incidental change in the road has given the opportunity for a big change in the appearance of the surroundings of the hotel, and all winter loam has been carted to the place, so that grass may be grown to advantage.

CROWS RECEIVE CROWNING BLOW.

Winning Team Passed by Narragansetts and Iroquois, the Latter the Champions.

Four Basket Ball Games and Two Swimming Relay Races Keep the Employed Boys Busy.

By far the most exciting events seen in the Fan-Athletic League were held at the Young Men's Christian Association Tuesday afternoon, when the Iroquois won the championship by but half a point from the Narragansetts, whose work was the feature. The Crows, who have been leading for many months, and had a nine-point advantage when the events began, were passed by both the Iroquois and the Narragansetts and finished third. It was a crushing blow to the jubilant hopes of the Crows, as in a twinkling a season's campaign of wins was swept away.

The Crows with 112 points were 3 ahead of the Iroquois, who had 108 when the afternoon contests began, and 15½ ahead of the Narragansetts, who were third with 96½. In the three competitive exercises the leading Crow team showed poorly each time, finishing fifth on all three occasions, scoring but six points.

The work of the Narragansetts stood out above all the others during the closing contest. Out of a possible 30 points they made 28.

The Iroquois have been pressing the Crows all the season, but the latter made a great stand during the last month, securing what seemed to be a safe lead. In the afternoon events there was a big surprise, the Iroquois making 22 points. The remaining teams finished in the order expected.

The final standing shows the Iroquois the champions with 125 points, while the Narragansetts are a close second with 124½. The Crows are third with 118, followed by the Cheyennes with 97, the Cherokees having 92½, while the Apaches are last with 68.

The afternoon's program consisted of competitive drills with wands and apparatus, the winning team securing 10 points, the second 8, third 6, fourth 4, fifth 2 and last 1 point. The team making the least number of mistakes was judged the winner, and so on.

The Narragansetts won the 10 points in the wand drill by making the least number of errors, the Iroquois finishing second, the Cheyennes and Apaches tied for third, the Crows fifth and the Cherokees last.

In the apparatus work the Narragansetts again came out in front with the Iroquois a close second, the Cherokees, Apaches, Crows and Cheyennes finishing in the order named. The result hinged on the number of points scored for best attendance, and had the Narragansetts again been first the championship would have been theirs. As it was, however, the Cherokees made the 10 points for best attendance, the Narragansetts finishing second, the Iroquois third, the Cheyennes fourth, the Crows fifth, the Apaches last.

After the result had been announced the winners shouted themselves nearly hoarse, while the Narragansetts were also jubilant over the excellent showing they had made, although they had lost the championship. It was also noticed that the Cherokees gave many cheers, because they succeeded in beating the Apaches in the race for last place.

The Employed Boys' class had a big night Tuesday, playing four basket ball games and holding two swimming relay races. In the relay races the Cranes, composed of Watson, Olson and Olivea, defeated the Hawk mermen, who were McGough Devlin and Quill. Later Olivea defeated a fourman team composed of Olson, Larson, Sullivan and Quill, winning by 1¾ laps.

The first basket ball contest, between the Bunnies and Gerard's Pets, ended a tie at 4 points each, the minutes being played. Thompson of the Pets made the first goal for Gerard's Pets, but Deat soon evened matters for the Bunnies, and there was no further scoring. The line-up and summary:

| Bunnies | | Gerard's Pets |
|---|---|---|
| Devlin, r. f. | l. g., | Jestings |
| Olivea, l. f. | r. g., | Thompson |
| Bloomfield, c. | c., | Sullivan |

| Dillon, l. g. | r. f., | Barker |

Score—Bunnies 2, Gerard's Pets 1. Goals from floor—Thompson; Devlin. Referee—Slocum. Timer—Slocum. Time—One 10-minute period.

The second game was won by the Starfish Giants, who defeated the Hinkydinks by a score of 6-2. The work of Bencivengia and Peterson, the Starfish guards, was the feature, and they made all of their team's points. The line-up and summary follow:

| Starfish Giants | | Hinkydinks |
|---|---|---|
| Tarr, r. f. | l. g., | Quill |
| Ladyman, l. f. | r. g., | Larson |
| Bailey, c. | c., | Olson |
| Peterson, r. g. | l. f., | Watson |
| Bencivengia, l. g. | r. f., | Goddard |

Score—Starfish Giants 6, Hinkydinks 2. Goals from floor—Bencivengia 2, Peterson; Larson. Referee—Slocum. Timer—Slocum. Time—10-minute period.

The Starfish Giants then proceeded to win the championship of the evening from the Bunnies, 5-0. The game was not decided until the final minute, when two quick scores by the Giants settled matters. Olivea was the mainstay of the Bunnies, while Bencivengia and Peterson were the whole show for the Starfish Giants. Line-up and summary:

| Starfish Giants. | | Bunnies. |
|---|---|---|
| Tarr, r. f. | l. g., | Dillon |
| Ladyman, l. f. | r. g., | Olivea |
| Bailey, c. | c., | Bloomfield |

Score—Starfish Giants 5, Bunnies 0. Goals from floor—Bencivengia, Peterson. Goals from foul line—Peterson. Referee—Slocum. Timer—Slocum. Time—One 10-minute period.

In the last game the Hinkydinks were shut out by Gerard's Pets by a score of 5-0. Thompson did the best work for the winners. The line-up and summary follow:

| Gerard's Pets. | | Hinkydinks. |
|---|---|---|

Arraignment of Siegel and Vogel Again Postponed.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The arraignment of Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel on charges of grand larceny and violations of the state banking laws, growing out of the failure of the Siegel enterprises, was again postponed today, this time until Wednesday next.

Attorneys for Siegel and Vogel said it was commonly understood that new indictments had been found against their clients and they wished for time to prepare an answer.

Vogel, showing evidence of his serious illness and speaking a little above a whisper, took the stand today in the bankruptcy hearing before the United States commissioner. He declared that outside of loans to Henry Siegel he new of no large personal loans made by Siegel and Co. He said $55,000 which he had loaned to the Fourteenth Street store had never been repaid.

When the banking house of Henry Siegel and Co. was organized, Vogel said, $5,000,000 was put into the concern. These assets consisted of stock in the Simpson-Crawford and Fourteenth Street stores in New York and of Siegel, Cooper & Co. in Chicago. In 1910 this stock was exchanged for $5,000,000 of the Siegel Stores Corporation. Vogel refused to tell where he kept his share of the stock on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him. Vogel said his proportion of this stock was $700,000 and that Siegel drew from the bank sums aggregating $150,000 for his personal use, depositing as security stock of the Siegel Stores Corporation.

WAGE INCREASE REFUSED.

Ohio Bituminous Coal Miners Out and Pennsylvania Men May Strike.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Nearly 50,000 Ohio bituminous coal miners were forced into idleness today, and 38,000 Pennsylvania miners may be thrown out of employment Friday, because of the failure of Chicago conference between the operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America to reach a new wage agreement to take the place of the one which expired last midnight.

Pending negotiations for a new agreement between coal miners in Indiana, Illinois and Iowa will continue at work.

Most of the mines in the Ohio district suspended operations last midnight, in accordance with orders issued Monday by the operators.

The operators in the central Pennsylvania district announced last night that unless the old agreement is renewed before Friday all the mines in that district will be closed and work suspended indefinitely. The agreement of miners and operators was made at Cleveland in 1912. Several weeks ago a joint conference was held at Philadelphia to make a new agreement to take effect today. The situation in Ohio is aggravated by a mine run law, passed by the Ohio legislature, which went into effect March 31. Enactment of the law was strongly opposed by the operators.

WHO WILL BE YOUR EXECUTOR?

ANSWER NO. 5.

With an individual, administering an estate is of secondary importance; with a Trust Company it is a daily business, handled by business methods. For example:

PRACTICES OF ACCOUNTING.

Rarely does an individual make regular annual returns to the Court.

Moreover, on account of pressure of private business, his duties as executor or trustee may be unintentionally neglected and you may have much difficulty in getting statements from him at reasonable intervals.

An individual who is not busy probably has not had the experience which qualifies one for the highly responsible duties of an executor and trustee.

A Trust Company is obliged by law to make regular annual returns to the Court.

It makes annual and even semi-annual statements to the proper beneficiaries.

It keeps all trust funds separate and distinct from its own resources and does not involve a trust in any way with its own transactions.

A thorough system of accounting approved by the Commonwealth of Rhode Island makes it possible for a Trust Company to state exact conditions of an estate at any moment.

Noon—The market lacked the vitality which characterized the preceding day. Initial gains were soon converted into equally slight losses, and the main tendency of the morning was downward. The impulse lent by indications of an early decision in the freight rates case seemed to have lost its force, and with no new influence to take its place speculative interest waned. Reports of advances in steel prices were without effect and United States Steel opened with the rest of the list. Traders sold short more freely than at any other time this week, but were not able to shake out holding of long stock, and there were appearances of underlying strength despite the morning's recessions. Bonds were steady. Call money, steady, at 2. Mercantile paper, 3½ and 4. Exchanges, $37,752; balances, $18,750,200.

Thursday.

Opera House—New Bill of Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

AN ACT OF MYSTERY.

Valdo, Latest Music and Many Pictures in the Opera House Change.

In the Opera House change for the last half of the week the feature will be Valdo, with an act of mystery. This performer has made a hit with his mysterious works on the Keith circuit. Entertaining in every respect, and with an unusual collection of equipment, his act is said to be a wonder. Mascagne, the second act on the bill, will render music of the latest, both vocal and instrumental. Nibio and Spencer, a dancing duo, are said to be remarkable, their clog dancing particularly being of a high order. Collins and Manning, with a singing and talking act, complete the bill of vaudeville.

In addition many pictures will be shown, most prominent of which is one of the greatest successes of the American stage, "The Pride of Jeanico," presented by Daniel Frohman in four parts. It is a stirring tale of the gallant days of old, of romance and roses and cold steel, when fortune and glory were carved by the sword. With several other pictures the performance will run three full hours.

MR. SCHULTZ IN CHARGE.

Takes up the Contract Work for the Care of the Public Parks.

The Park Commission held its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, all the members being present. Contractor Schultz was on hand and the Commission went over with him the work to be done on the several parks. A general understanding was had of what is to be done and Mr. Schultz took up his contract work this noon, which means that he at once assumed the charge of a caretaker for Aquidneck Park. This has already cost the city $150 this year, three months' pay. Hereafter there will be no charge to the city for this, as the contractor assumes the matter.

Colonel Willard was appointed a committee on the curb or coping at Aquidneck park.

The resolution of the Council on the matter of hiring bands was received, but no action was taken, as it is a trifle early for band music.

JAMESTOWN.

Progressives Active at the Polls for Election of Town Officers.

(Regular correspondence of the News.)

There was a considerable gathering at the town hall this morning when the polls were opened for the election of town officers. Workers were not very evident during the early hours, the Progressives being more active, however, than the Republicans. During the first hour only about 30 had voted, and although there are 296 on the lists the general opinion seemed to be that the vote would be light.

The King's Daughters gave another whist and social Tuesday evening at the Gardner House hall. After an hour of progressive whist the hall was cleared for dancing until 11 o'clock. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. John Price Wetherill has deeded her property with cottage thereon, known as the McClellan place, to her daughter, Mrs. Anna W. Stout. She has also deeded the property with cottage on Walcott avenue to her daughter, Mrs. G. Wood.

MOOSE TEAM WINS POOL CHALLENGE MATCH.

At the Moose Club Tuesday evening the Moose team, O'Connell and Fitzgerald, defeated Wise and Germain, in a challenge match at pool, the score being 100 to 96. The contest was close throughout, the Moose players winning after a steady up-hill game, in which all the participants put up good pool. O'Connell and Wise each made a run of 14, and Fitzgerald one of 13. The play was witnessed by a large number of enthusiasts, who frequently applauded the good work. The Moose orchestra played during the evening.

After the pool match Steward Jack O'Neill served one of his favorite chowders, to the delight of the members.

FIGURES 70 PER CENT HIGHER.

Holders of Mary Street Property Think It is Cheap at That.

Conference With Committee Regarding Prices for New Schoolhouse Site.

The joint committee, on the proposed new schoolhouse on Mary street held a meeting Tuesday evening with representatives of the land, which it is proposed to buy. Alderman Hughes, chairman of the aldermanic committee, explained that the price had advanced to $25,500, against $15,000 given when this project was first taken up in 1911 and on which the estimates were made. As $90,000 was appropriated for the entire work this would leave but $64,500 for the construction and it was a question of this was sufficient. The committee had therefore called the owners together to talk over the price of the land, to see if the figures given three years ago and those now asked could not be brought closer together. He did not say that if the committee failed in this the School Committee might condemn the land or might take another site.

There seemed to be no noticeable disposition to reduce; in fact, the talk was that the city was obtaining land very cheap. Still, the committee by looking at the figures could readily see that the price had advanced 70 per cent between the times when figures were given, when the school problem was first broached, and now, when the taxpayers have voted to have a schoolhouse built on this land.

Alderman Hughes presided and there were present, of the joint committee, Aldermen Leddy and Hanley, Superintendent Lull and W. J. Cozzens, R. C. Bachelier and W. W. Covell, besides representatives of the owners. Mr. Hughes explained the situation as the committee saw it and said the committee was unanimous in feeling that the differences between the cost of the land in 1911 and in 1914 were too great and that the price ought to be reduced.

Mr. F. H. Paine, who represented Miss Birckhead, was the first to speak. He told the committee that, while he did not know how much Miss Birckhead had asked for the land, he knew that she had told him in her opinion the price was low, less than the land was actually worth. She paid $5,500 for the property 22 years ago, and had torn down the house and divided the land into five lots. These are conveniently and centrally located, close to the car line and to Thames street. There are no other lots in this section so convenient and in her opinion the value of the land is much greater than is generally estimated.

In reply to a query from Mr. Hughes, Mr. Paine said that he could communicate with her, and tell her how the committee felt and obtain an expression of opinion from her on the matter of price. Mr. Hughes showed him two offers of the land made by Miss Birckhead—in October, 1911, for $7,000 and in February, 1914, for $10,000. Mr. Paine said he would communicate with Miss Birckhead at once and let the committee know as soon as possible what she says.

Mr. F. M. Hammett, representing the James H. Hammett heirs, was next to speak. He said he was not prepared to offer any reduction in the price asked without consultation with the other heirs, by whom the price had been made. In fixing the price, the fact that his brother has his business now established on the land to be taken and would be obliged to move, and would probably suffer some loss in the change besides the cost of moving, had been considered. The loss on income to the estate was also considered in making up the price of the land. He would take up the matter of a reduction in price with the other heirs and report to the committee.

Mr. George W. Ritchie, representing the Weenat Shassitt Association, said the price asked by the Association was the actual cost of the land plus about $300 profit. The land had been bought in 1906 for $4,500, improvements had cost about $400, interest about $2,169 and taxes about $200, making a total of $7,225. The Association asked $7,500, or less than $300 profit on what it had spent.

Mr. Bachelier asked about the 10-foot strip which the owners asked to have left open as a right of way, on the west of the land. Mr. Ritchie said that was to give the owners the same right of way in the rear they now enjoy. It seemed to him to be for the benefit of the city for these estates to have a rear entrance, as it would avoid the blocking of Thames street in delivering goods. This means a great relief to that part of Thames street, to have the crossing of the sidewalk by teams obviated. The properties now enjoy this rear right of way and are asking nothing new, but simply the retaining of that right.

Mr. Hughes said the committee had done some figuring and found that the prices per foot asked by the various owners were as follows: Red Men $1.40, Miss Birckhead $1.42, Hammett heirs $2.22.

Mr. Ritchie said he had not figured the price per foot but the Red Men's lot was worth the most of any per foot, and according to the figures the least was asked for it. The tax assessors had reckoned it as part of the Thames Street estate and assessed it at $1.35 per foot as Thames street property, since it adjoins and can be made part of the latter. On account of the objections of the Association this valuation had been reduced to $1 per foot. Mr. Paine suggested that the tax valuation is often of little use in fixing values. Mr. Ritchie said the Association had in mind the using of this land in connection with its present building, but though plans had been made nothing had been done. He also agreed to take up the matter with the Association and report to the committee what action is taken.

There was some talk about the deeds of Birckhead court and the copy of the deed was brought out. It showed that when the deed was given Miss Birckhead claimed all the land, though the Hammett heirs had signed also. Mr Ritchie said that, as he understood it, the Red Men bought the lot bounded on Birckhead court.

The taxed values of the several pieces of property were reported to be: Weenat Shassitt Association $5,470, Hammett heirs $3,960, Birckhead $3,500. The amounts now asked are: Weenat Shassitt Association $7,500 Hammett heirs $7,960, Birckhead $10,000. The prices asked in full were $5,000, $3,000 and $7,000. This is by recollection only, as the committee or the School Committee made a verbal report. Mr. Bachelier secured the price from the Hammett estate, Mr. Covell from the Red Men and Mr. Cozzens from Miss Birckhead. The last was the only one in writing and the other two do not remember just what prices they secured. It is remembered that the total price was approximately $15,000.

There seemed nothing else to do and the meeting adjourned.

A ONE-NIGHT EVENT.

Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. Circus to Have Professional Talent.

The professional talent at the Army and Navy Young Men's Christian Association circus will aid largely in making this affair another success, while the music to be rendered by the Fort Adams orchestra ought to be a big attraction. Instead of the usual custom of holding the circus on two successive nights, it has been decided to stage the event but one evening, Tuesday, April 7. Rehearsals are being held almost daily in the gymnasium, where the circus will take place, so that the performers will be in the best of condition.

Mr. R. D Flannery will do a comic tumbling stunt, an act which he gave four years with the Ringling Brothers circus. The second of the professional men is Mr. H. R. Truelson, who was long in the employ of the 101 Ranch Wild West show, his specialty being a comic police stunt. Mr. E. C. Cope, who has been with several circuses, will take the place of head clown. H. S. Carley will do a clever stunt on a slack wire, and there will also be a clowns' band of 10 pieces.

In all there are 20 numbers on the program, including tumbling, and work on the high bar, parallels, rings, and Indian club exercises.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY.

Members of the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church Baptized by Rev. Mr. Reed.

The Emergency Club of the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, composed of members who have been baptized by Rev. William B. Reed, the pastor, in the past four years, will have its fourth anniversary this evening, with appropriate exercises. In all 127 persons have been received, of whom 70 are now connected with the church. The men will be presented by Mr. Perry Clark, president of the club, and the women by Miss Elizabeth Jackson, its secretary, the deacons leading the two groups as they enter the room. Miss Ethel Bonner will read a history of the club and Rev. H. W. Colston of Pawtucket will preach the sermon.

Announcement is made that the Mt. Olivet Church has nothing to do with any hospital entertainment, directly or indirectly, and that no one has been authorized to connect this church with any such movement. When the Newport Hospital makes its appeal to the churches the Mt. Olivet sends its donation in an official way. In 1912 the church sent $50. Last year when the appeal came the church was in the throes of a mortgage-burning rally and postponed its donation. Next August when the appeal goes to the churches Mt. Olivet will send its $50.

HOW STYLES CAN CHANGE.

Newest and Latest in Fashiondom Seen at the Bee Hive Opening.

The weather today was such as to call out large numbers to attend the spring opening at the Bee Hive. Many women availed themselves of the opportunity to see the newest and latest in Fashiondom, as illustrated in the different coats, suits and waists in the store's complement.

The windows show a remarkable display, not only of these articles of wearing apparel, but also of the manifold accessories—belts, necklaces, gloves, etc. In the large collections in the various departments, the woman who wears the new styles can be assured of plenty of youthfulness and a vivid dash, while for older women the styles, although possibly not so picturesque, include garments which will give a younger appearance —what every woman wants.

An interesting part of the display is the collection of "Printzess" suits and coats. These garments are made in Cleveland, Ohio, and so great is the demand for them that the factory has become one of the largest of its kind.

The opening is for today, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and the Bee Hive is a place worth visiting, just to see how styles can change and have changed from the former efforts of Paris designers.

O'CONNELL'S GREAT PLAY.

Newporter Makes Two Hits in Game With the Savannah Team.

The Providence International League base ball team played the Savannahs of the Southern League at Savannah, Ga., Tuesday, the Savannahs winning, 1 to 0. The Providence players did little batting, Ralph O'Connell of this city being the only man to make two hits, the entire team having but six. The Providence Journal correspondent says:

"O'Connell was the only Providence hitter who walloped the ball with any degree of skill, the Newporter going the nine innings and coming Wolfe's stuff for a fine single and a corking double. 'Oke' was there strong also in the fielding line, a brilliant one-handed stoop on a ball driven with terrific speed by Van Landingham being his banner offering. On a perfect peg to Shean he forced Crowell, who was on first when the ball caromed off the stick. The youngster also made a great play on a hot grounder from Crowell's war club in the fourth."

O'Connell's record in the game was: 4 times at bat, 2 hits, 1 putout, 1 assists, no errors.

OCEAN HOUSE IMPROVEMENTS.

An extension is being built to the dining room at the Ocean House, across the beach, the rooms on the second and third floors are being improved, a garage is being built and the lawn in front is being graded and laid out to set off the place to better advantage. The new bridge over the creek and the incidental change in the road has given the opportunity for a fine change in the appearance of the surroundings of the hotel, and all winter loam has been carted to the place, so that grass may be grown to advantage.

CROWS RECEIVE CRUSHING BLOW.

Winning Team Passed by Narragansetts and Iroquois, the Latter the Champions.

Four Basket Ball Games and Two Swimming Relay Races Keep the Employed Boys Busy.

By fer the most exciting events seen in the Fan-Athletic League were held at the Young Men's Christian Association Tuesday afternoon, when the Iroquois won the championship by but half a point from the Narragansetts, whose work was the feature. The Crows, who have been leading for many months, and had a nine-point advantage when the events began, were passed by both the Iroquois and the Narragansetts and finished third. It was a crushing blow to the jubilant hopes of the Crows, as in a twinkling a season's campaign of wins was swept away.

The Crows with 112 points were 9 ahead of the Iroquois, who had 103 when the afternoon contests began, and 15¼ ahead of the Narragansetts, who were third with 96½. In the three competitive exercises the leading Crow team showed poorly each time, finishing fifth on all three occasions, scoring but six points.

The work of the Narragansetts stood out above all the others during the closing contest. Out of a possible 30 points they made 28.

The Iroquois have been pressing the Crows all the season, but the latter made a great stand during the last month, securing what seemed to be a safe lead. In the afternoon events there was a big surprise, the Iroquois making 22 points. The remaining teams finished in the order expected.

The final standing shows the Iroquois the champions with 125 points, while the Narragansetts are a close second with 124½. The Crows are third with 118, followed by the Cheyennes with 97, the Cherokees having 92¾, while the Apaches are last with 68.

The afternoon's program consisted of competitive drills with wands and apparatus, the winning team securing 10 points, the second 8, third 6, fourth 4, fifth 2 and last 1 point. The team making the least number of mistakes was judged the winner, and so on. The Narragansetts won the 10 points in the wand drill by making the least number of errors, the Iroquois finishing second, the Cheyennes and Apaches tied for third, the Crows fifth and the Cherokees last.

In the apparatus work the Narragansetts again came out in front, with the Iroquois a close second, the Cherokees, Apaches, Crows and Cheyennes finishing in the order named. The result hinged on the number of points scored for best attendance, and had the Narragansetts again been first the championship would have been theirs. As it was, however, the Cherokees made the 10 points for best attendance, the Narragansetts finishing second, the Iroquois third, the Cheyennes fourth, the Crows fifth, the Apaches last.

After the result had been announced the winners shouted themselves nearly hoarse, while the Narragansetts were also jubilant, over the excellent showing they had made, although they had lost the championship. It was also noticed that the Cherokees gave many cheers, because they succeeded in beating the Apaches in the race for last place.

The Employed Boys' class had a big night Tuesday, playing four basket ball games and holding two swimming relay races. In the relay races the Cranes, composed of Watson, Olson and Olivea, defeated the Hawk mermen, who were McGough Devlin and Quill. Later Olivea defeated a four-man team composed of Olson, Larson, Sullivan and Quill, winning by 1¼ laps.

The first basket ball contest, between the Bunnies and Gerard's Pets, ended a tie at 4 points each, but 10 minutes being played. Thompson made the first goal for Gerard's Pets, but Deal soon evened matters for the Bunnies, and there was no further scoring. The line-up and summary:

| Bunnies | | Gerard's Pets. |
|---|---|---|
| Devlin, r. f. | l. g., | Jestings |
| Olivea, l. f. | r. g., | Thompson |

| Dillon, l. g. | r. f., | Barker |

Score—Bunnies 2, Gerard's Pets 2. Goals from floor—Thompson; Dent. Referee—Slocum. Timer—Slocum. Time—One 10-minute period.

The second game was won by the Starfish Giants, who defeated the Hinkydinks by a score of 6-2. The work of Benelvengia and Peterson, the Starfish guards, was the feature, and they made all of their team's points. The line-up and summary follow:

| Starfish Giants | | Hinkydinks |
|---|---|---|
| Tarr, r. f. | l. g., | Quill |
| Ladyman, l. f. | r. g., | Larson |
| Bailey, c. | c., | Olson |

Score—Starfish Giants 6, Hinkydinks 2. Goals from floor—Benelvengia 2, Peterson; Larson. Referee—Slocum. Timer—Slocum. Time—10-minute period.

The Starfish Giants then proceeded to win the championship of the evening from the Bunnies, 5-0. The game was not decided until the final minute, when two quick scores by the Giants settled matters. Olivea was the mainstay of the Bunnies, while Benelvengia and Peterson were the whole show for the Starfish Giants. Line-up and summary:

| Starfish Giants. | | Bunnies. |
|---|---|---|
| Tarr, r. f. | l. g., | Dillon |
| Ladyman, l. f. | r. g., | Olivea |

Score—Starfish Giants 5, Bunnies 0. Goals from floor—Benelvengia, Peterson. Goals from foul line—Peterson. Referee—Slocum. Timer—Slocum. Time—One 10-minute period.

In the last game the Hinkydinks were shut out by Gerard's Pets by a score of 9-0. Thompson did the best work for the winners. The line-up and summary follow:

| Gerard's Pets. | | Hinkydinks |
|---|---|---|
